A Shaye—A Kentucky friend some years since related to us the following anecdote, as having accredited to use of many and a pecuniary reponsibility, though he was always in want of money, and frequently in the hands of of shawers.

On one occasion ke went to a certain accommediating friend, to borrow two thousand dollars.

"Ves said his friend, "Pete, I will lend you the two thousand dollars, and without interest too, if you will give you a hild on London, the curred thing will be back on me here under protest, in four months at farthest, and then I must pay the amount and twenty per cent damages. That sto deep a dig."

"Well," said Shyloko, "that is a cutting it rather far, I acknowledge, but'l will tell you Pete, what I will do—I will take your bill on London for two thousand dollars, and pay you for it two thousand dollars, and pay you for it two thousand dollars, and pay you for it two thousand dollars and twenty per cent damages, making together two thousands of the will be provided

In due course of time Pete's friend got back two thousand tollars, less bankers commissions, and without interest, for two thousand two hundred he had poul Pete some months previous. It was a regular shave, only the shaver became the shaver. Our friend, from whom we had the story, said he never heard whether Pete ever renewed the operation. We can only add, that we have often wished we had such a cousin in London.—New Orleans Bulletin.
