sort, I came all the way to Harburg, solitary and alone, and what with the journey of the previous day I had now come between three and four hundred miles in a fire car all to myself.

Of course there is very little company in being thrown among those of whose language you do not understand a word; yet it was a positive relief to me to be thrown among it mescellaneous mass I found on the little steamer on which you cross the Ebe, from Harburg to Hamburg I might be going a little too far were I to say that I expected the clerk, or some one on board, would show me to a lone room, which was to be all my own; but had they done so I should have resisted most certainly, had enough of solitary confinement—enough to convince me that it is the very worst punishment you can impose upon a man—almost worst than hang-done so I should have resisted most certainly, had enough of solitary confinement—enough to convince me that it is the very worst punishment you can impose upon a man—almost worse than hanging without the benefit of clergy.

The distinguished stranger finally obtained a solution of the mystery at Hamburg, where, falling in with a German whom he had known in New Orleans, the latter, with a scream of laughter, on being informed of his dilemma, told him that in Germany "only fools and Princes travel in first-class cars."

LATEST FROM HAITI.

The Jamuca Journal of the 6th inst. has the ollowing peaceful intelligence from this heretofore following peaceful intelligence from this heretotore distracted country.

By H. M. steamer Vixen, which arrived yesterday from Port su Prince, we learn that the state of things in Hauth has subsided down to a degree of quietness which must be received with feelings of satisfaction by every friend of that distracted and subfurdant country. On Prince of the conference persons having been condemned to death, they were taken from prison on that day, to be sent to Laucaholes to be shot. The cries of the females throughout the town were great, but having supported their conviction of the innocente of the condemned, at about two o'clock the place pre-ented a scene of gaicty it having been ascertained that the President had reprieved the prisoners and despective of the following morning found to town. The multitude, consisting principally of temales. The multitude, consisting principally of temales from the town were sent than the President had reprieved the prisoners and despective of the following morning found the town.) In the evening they entered the prisoners on their fortunate ercape for an afternation.
