The difficulties of part of the mente which formed the subject of this report, and of the entire country as far as the Cheat and Typart Valley rivers, induced the Board to call in two consulting engineers to confer with the Chief Engineer upon the location of this important section of the road. For this purpose the services of Jonathan Knight, of Pennsylvania, and John Childe, of Massachusetts, were secured, and in the month of June the Board of Engineers, thus constituted, examined the country described, with care, and deedded upon sit the lines it would be appellent to trace, in order to leave no room for question that the entire ground had been investigated with the staget raution.

PROM BEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7, 1888.

An immerate repossibility how a ravival of the Steamer has at last sculed the agreement of the desiry of the PART, member of Congress from Western Pennsyl vania, exhibits in its true light, the character of the extra allowance claimed by and paid to Gen Casa, while in the service of the General Govern ubt about Mr. Corcoran's mission to England regulating a loan of five millions of dollars from various parties. A letter to that effect was read at the Stock Exchange, this forenoon, by Mesars-Cammann & Whitehouse, from Mr. Corcoran which created a great fluttering among the brokers. The sales of form stockers. ent. Mr. Stewart makes these statements ur which created a great nuttering among the bro-kers. The sales of fancy stocks on speculation were very large, at irregular prices, Government loan being affected slightly. The haste to make the announcement of this loan public, gives room to suspect that a secret reason exists in the minds

nated, and makes people cautious.

A large robbery was committed last night, at Pat

proach of danger, nor more prompt is remising to the nearest Thermopyine, than that devoted state which is ever ready for Liberty or Death—with a preference however, for the former.

Mr. Barnwell Rhett has been staking a speech in Charleston, and Gen. Hamilton has been wrung a letter; and by startling coincidences, at thacr iss, both the speech and the letter terminate in fire arms and hint darkly of gore. The Wilmot Proviso is to be encountered on a knowledge, and South. Carnlina, mounted on a must ang, is to lead in the state. Her weapon is the rifle.

Gen. Hamilton declares that if the North carriery into the Union, the South will be "easentially colonial in all ber ignominious subcalssion." The thing must be resisted, it can never be submitted to says the general, "by a people as essentially military "in their instincts as any that God has ever created."

to all the interests of Pennsylvania—a man who has sold himself to the South for a 'mess of pottago' which he will never taste—a traitor—an unblushing and blotted traitor—the just of the free States? There should be some limit to public wrong. There should be some bounds to jubble ordurance. The public indignation cannals be expected always to sleep. The suffering working men of Penns, who were so grossly, intentionally, and crueity deceived by their legisters at the last Presidential election, have shown great forbeignance in keeping their hands off the perfidious political wretches who are the real authors of their present calamities.—There are no marks of contempt too insuling for these poor and abused men to visit any attempt by their former betrayers to again hood wink and cheat them into an abundanment of their true interests. Should any one of the political leaders who were concerned in the contemptible political swindle of 1844, again approach these betrayed and suffering laboyers of Pennsylvania with new ticks to swindle them out of their honest opinions and cherished interests, they alpind he made to feel the indignant scorn of the men whom they so shamefully duped, and whom they have reduced from a condition of high prosperity to want and rule.

I confess that if I were one of that large mass of

If after throws her weight in this scale of Cars and free trade, and her voice should decide the election, no incoming light will break upon the darkness which now broods over all her great interests for the graft our years. If she goes for Johnston & Governor, for Taylor and a protective turiff, a bright sind unchoused future opens at once to view good times will again return to gladden the beauts of her people, and generous wages will reward the abors of all her working men. Should every true, honest and patriotio man in Pennsylvania devote his whole time and his best, undivided efforts for the next thirty days to a consummation so devoutly to be wished by every real friend of her great interests, it would be the best, and in the end the most profitable month's work they ever engaged in. Let them think well of this before it is too late.—There's no time to be lost. The eyes of the whole American people are now faced upon Pennsylvania. The friends of protection to American aboring other State now expect Pennsylvania to do her justy. Let her but be true to herself and own great interests, and she cannot then be false to any of her sister States.
