ntutional and democratic under Jefferson, h son, Monroe, &c., to do what Polk seloed' his repudiation by one man, of a democratic p ipley, is no evidence that the Paula second pue, is no evidence that the People sequence the repudation. The principle was damoest 1800, and it is democration now. The

that it is concampassibly the Loco Foco party, does not alter its character, for there is less democracy in Loco Focoism than there is vitality in Santa Annas wooden leg. The people are about to get rid of Polk. It is a matter of bot little consequence, therefore, what his views were upon this or any other subject.— Dut it is important to know how Cass stands affoo-ed. There are two means of judging of his posi-ion: first, from whot has and his motiany time within ten days of the period fixed by aw for the choice of Electors for President and Vice Precaident, and to make out lists for the offi ders of said election, and to deliver the same to them on or before eight o'clock on the morning of But it is important to know now class sounds and ted. There are two means of judging of his posi-tion: first, from what he asy's himself; and second by from what chers say for him. The Bahimor Convention is the accredited exponent of his view. This in the absence of any better ovideace, would be conclusive: But, fortunately his own word con-demns him. "When asked at Caveland to give his views upon this subject, he refused on account of the "noise and confusion," but he added that he should deem the success of the democratic party now as instructions from the People for kies to tread in James K. Polk's footsteps! This dealara-tion, with his very contemptible letter to the Chi-card Convention, furnish all the ovidence neces-any to enable same ene to property classify him. Letwis Cass is equally explicit in his repudiation of those other old fashinand democratic principles —a Protective Tariff and Free Labor upon Free Soll. Loxoos, Sept 29, 1848. The European toil and trouble for the presen week amounts to about what may now be consider ed the average quantity. A republican movemen in the Grand Dachy of Baden, on the heets of the sflair at Frankfort, has zerved to keen Germany in confusion. Prussis is still laboring in the vain effort to establish the existence of an efficient ex-ecutive government conjointly with that of an un-trained and single popular Assembly. Anstria keeps up a bold front on the Italian question. Slicity and Naples have been torn for a moment from each others' fangs, but are still panting in their un-slacked hatted. In England the trains of the Char-tists and in Ireland those of the rebels are simulta-neously proceeding, and from France we are pas-tiently watching in utter uncertainty for the next move of the national phantsamagoris. THE GERMAN REPUBLICANS. I will be recollected that shortly after the French

It will be recollected that shortly after the French revolution the Provisional Government at Paris adroitly contrived to get it of all troblesome for-eigners from the capital, by urging them to proceed on republican crusades to their respective finher-iands, and that, having furnished them with rail read conveyance and every thing to facilitate their departure, it left them without assistance, to be cut up or put in prison by their enraged countrymen, as the case might be. In this ways a company of Belgian liberators were conveyed at the rate of footiler, where a regiment of soldiars were drawn frontier, where a regiment of soldiars were drawn in to the nearest juit while a similar body were sant into Germany to meet in the universal terror and hostility of the invaded district, a scarcely

The chief agents in the latter movement were a Mr. Hecker and a Mr. Struve, both of whom, after they had discovered the abortive nature of their attempts, contrived to escape into Switzerfand.— Mr. Hecker, it appears, was possessed of property and is understood to have invested it in United Sates stock, with the view of starting for America. But the Schleswig Holstenn excilement and the rest of the Frankfort Diet on that question seem to have revived his old ambition, and consequently no sooner had the Frankfort out break taken place than his party from Switzeriand at the bead of a refuse band of Polas, Frenchmen, and Germans, invaded the neighboring Duchy of Badoa and proclaimed the German republic.
