We feel incapable of doing full justice to the speech of the noble and generous hearted officer, and believe that we but reiterate the sentiment all present, when we pronounce it one of the ablest all present, when we produce it one of the anises and most happy efforts in vindication of the claims of the gallant old General, Zachary Taylor, upon his country, to which we have ever listened. He spoke nearly two hours, and every word which spoke nearly two house not area you which which we have a set of the anxious multitude, who made the very air ring with bursts of aphause from all sides. Capt. Cuter spoke not from bearsay; be had fought side by side with the Hero of Buena Vista, and was a Cap-

b of this mouth. It commenced on the third and continued until the 7th. The wind blow great guns, the rais fell in a deluge, and thick clouds obsoured the light of the sun, suspending all business in the forwards and putting a stop to agricultural labor in the country. The wind was, most of the time, east and southesst, but occasionally it seemed to come from all points of the others. The papers, however, do not speak of any edifice thrown down, or loss of life. which General Taylor had been used by Presso to dent Polk, and his hired menials; but that in agite of the mighty power welled at Washing ton, and the base attempt to pull down General Taylor from the high emineuce to which be had arisen by his gallant deeds in Mexico, the plain, deeds of value and hith
