CIMPTER Co., April 25th, 1878.

Dr. Swayne—Dear Sir. I verily believe your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry has been the means of asving my life. I caught a severe cold, which gradually grew worse, attended with a severe cough, that resisted all the remedies which I had recourse to, suit increasing until my case exhibited all the symptoms of Polimonary Coissumption. Overy this results of the property of the prope

Respectually Yours,

Wonderful Curse of a Mathodist Minister.

Dr. Swayne—Dear Sir. I feel a debt of gratitude due to you—and a duty to the affilieted generally, to offer my humble teatmony in favor of your Compound Syripp of Wild Cherry. Some three, years since I was violently attacked with cold and inflammation of the Lungs, which was a necompanied with a distreasing cough, pain in offensive mucus from the lungs, especially upon change of weather, however slight. At first I felt re alarm about my condition, but was pretty soon convinced that I was rapidly going into consumption. I grew dully weaker, and at length was scarcely able to walk about, or speak above a whipper, such was the exceeding weakness of my lungs. During this time I had tried various preparations and prescriptions, but found no relief—growing all the time worse. Just there I was advised and persuaded by a dear friend in Wilmington to make trial previously I had been prejuded a small goard of the bands of emperies, but understanding your claims to the profession and practice of medicine, and having implicit faith in the asymn of my friends. I forthwith purchased of Dr. Shaw, one of your agents, a few bottles, and commenced its use. My discussed that the considerable relief from the use of the first four or five bottles. I frequently at the memped to prove the weeker in the above indiversion. The Byrup aliayard the feverlash had use twelve or fifteen bottles before I was perfectly restored. I have no question, a much smaller number of bottles would have made me sound, but for the above indivertion.
