Chicago, already a large city, is unquestionably destined to be the great commercial centre of the north western section of the Union. A rail road is now in progress connecting that city with Galean and the Upper Mississippi, while by the Illinois Canal, and the navigation of Lake Michigan, the business and travel of the Illinois valley, and from the far north are drawn to it. The Michigan Central Rail Road Company will extend their work around the south point of Lake Michigan to Chicago, and by their charter are also required to make a branch to Laporte.

The citizens of Pittiburgh and Ecstern Ohio are pressing forward the Peunsylvania and Ohio Rail Road, running from that city through Massillon and Wooster to Mansfeld, and a charter has been obtained for its extension that city through Massillon and Wooster to Mansfeld, and a charter has been obtained for its extension that city through Massillon and Wooster to Mansfeld, and a charter has been obtained for its extension (its through Massillon and Wooster to Mansfeld, and a charter has been obtained for its extension (its through Massillon and Wooster to Mansfeld, and a charter has been obtained for its extension (its through Massillon and Wooster to Mansfeld, and a charter has been obtained for its extension (its through Massillon and Wooster to Mansfeld, and a charter has been obtained for its extension, the considering the deep interest which these cities have at stake, and the capital they can command, in connection with the wealth of the counties in Ohio through which the work will pass, we may reasonably conclude that this road from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, add thence to its intersection with the Cincinnati and Sandusky road, is one of the great leading routes which will be opened at no distant day.

Suffice it to say, that Professor Twuning represents the footie, in its various suspects as a good one and the work already performed as of the most subsaminal character.

The object of the visit of the enterprising Directors of that road to this city, at the present time, we understand to be, partly at least, to lay its claims before our ctizens, as the ten routs for a Western some understanding by which two roads will not be built from the Ohio river, to the table lands in, Ohio.

Our readers will recoilect, that the Pennsylvania have already selected their route, which leaves the Ohio at Beaver, and proceeds in an almost direct line to the table lands beyond Salem, crossing the vill public consideration must be fully established. It may be doubted whether amongst the numerous Rail Road routes in the West now urged upon the public notice, there be one of no greater length which will connect so many important points, and promises more of altimate advantage than the proposed link between Laporto and Kenton—Even though the extension to Putsburgh and Cleveland in light be delayed for a time, its connexion with the Sandusky and Cincinnati Road now in operation, will at once give to Northern Indiana and to Northern Illinois and Wisconsin, a perfect connexion by Rail Road both with Lake Erie and with the Onlo dver at Cincinnati.

In publishing the following extract row a fetter received yesterday aliernoon from the Vice President elect, we plead guilty to trenching sompwhat upon the inviolability of private correspondence; but the sentiments avowed by Mr. Filmore are so bonorable and just, so truly patriotic and autonal, and will everywhere be read with so much pleasure, that we feel we are justified, and rendering a service in making them justified, and rendering a service in making them justified, and rendering a popular sentiment which calls up such deep feelings of gratitude as that generous vote of my old freeds and early constituents of the county of Eric. It is now twenty years since they farst elected me to the Assembly, and from that day to this they have stood by me through good and through evil report, and sustained no under all circumstances with a zeni and fidelity almost unknown in this country; and the last crowning act of their continued kindness and confidence awakens the

I trust, too, that you will not blame me for expressing the gratification and pride which I feel in receiving so finitering a vote in my native state.

But these things are in a measure personal to myself, and therefore of very little importance. Congress, relieves the party at once from all the embarransing questions that arise out of sectional differencies of opinion, and enables it to act harmoniously for the good of the country.

"When the President ceases to control the lawmaking power, his individual opinions of what the law ought to be become comparaitedly unimportent. Hence we have seen Gen. Taylor, though attacked as a slave holder and pro slavery man at the North, cordially supported and triumphantly elected by men opposed to slavery in all its forms; and though I have been charged at the South, in the most gross and wanton manner, with being an abolitionist and incendiary, yet the Whigs of the South have cast these calumnies to the winds, and without asking or expecting any thing more than South have cast these calumnies to the winds, and without asking or expecting any thing more than what the constitution guarantees to them on this subject, they have yielded to me a most hearty and enthusiastic support. This was particularly so in New Orleans, where the attack was most violent. "Really, these Southern Whigs are noble fel lows. Would you not lament to see the Union dissolved, if for no other cause than that it separated us from such true, noble and high minded associates? But I regard this election as putting an end to all ideas of disunion. It raised up a national party, occupying a middle ground, and leaves the fanatics and disunionists, North and South without the hope of destroying the fairfabric of our constitution. May it be perpetual."

COURT SCENES .- Our Judges and Lawyers hav their own fun. Generally the proceedings of the Court room are characterized by a becoming gra-vity and decorum, but sometimes the most ludic-

There is a point beyond which human forbearance cannot go, and the most even of tempers will become ruffled at times. At the Assizes beld duing the past year at Liscoln, in England, both Judge and counsel had much trouble to make the imid witnesses upon a trial speak sufficiently loud to be leard by the jury, and it is possible that the temper of the counsel may thereby have been turned aside from the even tenor of its way, and the more likely perhaps owing to bis feeling himself to be a mar pernaps owing to his feeling himself to be a min of considerable importance since he had marrix a dowager duchess. After this gentleman ha gone through the various stages of bar pleading and had conxed, threatened, and even bullie witnesses, there was one called into the box, 1 young ostler, who appeared to be simplicity persocified.

"Now, sir," said the above-named counsel, in a sone which at any other time would have been de nounced as vulgarly loud, "I hope we shall have no difficulty in making you speak up."

"I hope not, sir," was shouted or rather bellowed out by the winess, in tones which almost shook the building, and would have certainly slarmed any timid or nervous lady.

"How dare you speak in that way, sir ?" said the counsel.
