The note of preparation is now the sounding along the whole line, and the work is it faitly begun. From Columbas to Xeain the y we learn that owing to the difficulty of getting in and out of Sanduky harbor, boats most of the failliphaving to land their passengers on Kelley's is-liand, for want of water on the bar, the directors of the Cincinnati and Sandusky railroad have held a meeting and resolved forthwith continue their road to this place. So we shall soon abound with traveling facilities. How is it about the Putsburgh traveling facilities.

The Pittaburgh road is coming. Forty miles of it,-or of a road in that direction,-will be located as soon as possible. If the Cleveland and Wellsville company have their road finished from the point of intersection, beyond Salem, to Cleveland, by the time the Pennsylvania and Ohio road by the time the rennsylvants and Onio road reaches there, we shall then have a continuous Railroad connection with Cleveland. Will the Cleveland people see to this?
