It is generally understood that Gen. Taylor will arrive about the 15th of February.

The official organ, of this morning, gives out some speculations of its own and of other journals, upon the thame of removals under the incoming Administration. Without arriving at any decisions of his own in the maner, the editor copies the optains of a contemporary, that Gen. Taylor will not allow of the diamissal of any Locofoco clerks in the Departments, who are capable men, no matter who may have been proscribed, to give them places, and no matter if they were unhered into office under the potent influence of the spoils sys in the Departments, who are capable men, no mat-ter who may have been proscribed, to give them places, and no matter if they were ushered into office under the potent influence of the spoils sys-tem, transplanted from the Albany Regency to the National Metropolis.
