Dr. Riddle said he did not feel that the had any very important information to lay before the meet- ing. This was the immedi- ate cause of this effort to provent the profanation of the Sabbath. All parties agreed that the evil should be abated, and the meeting was called to consider the means of accomplishing the object Having enlarged somewhat upon the subject, the interruption of religious worship, &c., he gave way to the Committee, who then made a report, which as amended, will be found below. Dr. Riddle moved the acceptance of the Report. Carried. Rev. N. Dr. RiddleDoes the Doctor ask for information or merely from a desire to hear a phylological dis- quisition on the subject.	Dr. Riddle differed in opinion with Mr. Layng. He did not feel it in conscience to be his duty to make such information. If he so believed, he would feel self reproached for neglecting the duty, but constables were elected for this, among other purposes—and it was therefore their special duty. Every man had his share of duty. After some further conversation, the 4th para- graph was agreed to. A paragraph relating to the obstruction of the pavements, dcc., by idlers, on the Sabbath, was struck out, without discussion, on motion of Dr. J. Black. The last paragraph of the memorial was then taken up, read, and passed. Mr. Tpitten though the whole matter useless, so far, as connecils were concerned. They had no power to act on the subject. He would throw aside the memorial, and pass proper resolutions instead. The memorial was then adopted, and a collection taken up, on motion of Mr. West, to defray ex- pense of printing. Mr. Hyan object both to the printing of the report, and to the reading of it in the publits. He feared it would tend to defeat the object aimed at. Mr. Lorens thought the report would have a very beneficial tendency. He hoped it would go forth. Leave was granted, and the committee with- iltrew, when Dr. Riddle was called on to address the meeting, during the absence of the Commit tee. Dr. Riddle said he did not feel that the had any very important information to lay before the meet- ing. A paragraph relating to the obstruction of the pavements, &c., by idlers, on the Sabbath, was struck out, without discussion, on motion of Dr. J. Black. The last paragraph of the memorial was then taken up, read, and passed. Mr. Tputen thought the whole matter useless, so far, as concils were concerned. They had no power to act on the subject. He would throw aside the memorial, and pass proper resolutions instead. The memorial was then adopted, and a collection taken up, on motion of Mr. West, to defray ex- pense of printing. Mr. Heyan objected both to the printing of the report, and to the reading of it in the pulpits. He feared it would tend to defeat the object aimed at. Mr. Lorens thought the report would have a very beneficial tendency. He hoped it would go forth. Dr. Wray said that one evil—the running of milk carts, during certain hours of the Sabbath, had been already removed. Dr. Riddio—The same may be done with the omnibuses. After some further conversation, the 4th para- graph was agreed to. A paragreph relating to the obstruction of the pavements, &c., by idlers, on the Sabbath, was struck out, without discussion, on motion of Dr. J. Black. The last paragraph of the memorial was then taken up, read, and passed. Mr. Tputen thought the whole matter useless, so far as conncils were concerned. They had no power th act on the subject. He would throw aside the memorial, and pass proper resolutions instead. The memorial was then adopted, and a collection taken up, on motion of Mr. West, to defray ex- pense of printing. Mr. Hryan objected both to the printing of the report, and to the reading of it in the pulpits. He feared it would thend to defeat the object aimed at. Mr. Lorens thought the report would have a very beneficial tendency. He hoped it would go forth. Dr. Wray said that one evil—the running of milk carts, during certain hours of the Sabbath, had been already removed. Mr. Cox feared that the opposition in the com- munity would be to stong as to defeat the object of the meeting.
