The whole amount received by this So all quarters, from the time of its organization, November, 1846, to the first of May, 1848, is £193,882 4s. 10d. Of the amount received from

America, £15,730 5si 10d was in cash, and £133,780 0a. 7d. in provisions showing that Ame rics contributed three-fourths of all the donation The Society had on hand, at the date of its r port in May, £34,276 is 2d,—the remainder had uted in the counties of Ulster, Leinster, Connaugh, and Munster. The Society is still actively engaged in its benevolent work; but has changed somewhat its mode of action, having very sauch discontinued gratuitons issues of food, for purposes of general relief, and confined its grants chiefly to some suffering districts; and is analyze. purposes of general relief, and confined its grants chiefly to some suffering districts; and is applying the residue of its means to such objects as are mos likely, while affording present relief, to have a di sect bearing upon the permanent improvement of the condition of the people, in promoting produc country. To this end, it is giving encouragement country. To this end, it is giving encouragement to fisheries, advancing money towards an improved system of find cultivation; making grants of turnip, and other green-erop seeds, to small farmers; and farmaking donations of clothing to the industrious formulation of the communities state, that no portion of the Irish community labor under greater illustration.

community labor under greater difficulties and privations, than those whose occupation of land exeeeding one quarter of an acre has excluded them poor law relief, and who cling to their little ngs as the only means of future subsistence Several instances have occurred, in which person thus circumstanced have suffered individuals of their family to die of want rather than surrender sheir land. Encouraged by the experience of last ance to this suffering class, the Committee have this year allotted the sum of £5000 for the pur-chase of turnip, and other green-crop seeds, which

Ireland is again, at the commencement of winter in a state of frightful destitution of provisions Much dreadful suffering must be the consequence and doubtless the Committee will soon expend, in staying for a moment the rolling tide of want, al ing resources. Should any of our citisens again feel like stretching out the hand of relief, they will find the Committee of Friends, in Dublin, ready to distribute, with a judicious hand,

The formations.

We have already stated, says the Baltimore Sun, the positive denial by the Spanish papers of the porteations disclosurers which the New York Herald has been for some time past indulging as to the negotiations by the U. S. Minister at Madrid, for the purchase of Ciba. The Herald also took the liberty of connecting the name of Hon. John M. Botts, with a knowledge thereof, actually usering that kaphad received a letter from Madrid, containing the information, and that he intended making a call on the subject in Congress. Unfortunately, however, the column upon column which the Herald has thus devoted, have been quite as reckless. ly thrown away as much other of the "sound and fury fignifying nothing" which appears in that jour nal. IRELAND-ITS PRESENT STATE. I have lately been travelling through Ireland, and have been more or less into half of its counties, and all of its four provinces. In conformity with the original plan of my correspondence I will give your readers some of the general results of my observations and inquiries, without any attempt to caronicle, my own personal adventures.

THE PHYSICAL CONDITION OF THE RIGHT Dunin, Nov. 16, 1848.

I take the liberty of sending you a hasty sketch of the last hours of Robert Blum, the champion of Geman freedom, who was shot by command of the Court Martial at Vienna, on the 9th.

man freedom, who was shot by command of the Court Martial at Vienna, on the 9th.

About two hours before the time appointed for his execution, a chaplain was deputed to visit him, and prepare him for death, of which he had received no previous notice. At first he could not believe the messenger of death, but the gloomy tidings were soon corroborated by a judge. He appeared quite calm and collected, remarking to the chaplain, "You know, perhaps, that I am a German Catholic; I believe, therefore, you will exempt me from autrealir confession."—The minister, being of the same persuasion, of course assented.

Blum begged a little time to write to his wife, children and mother at Leipnic, which was granted. After some moments of conversation with the chaplain, during which he was perfectly calm, he said, "I am exceedingly happy to have made the acquaintance of so worthy and Christian a man; I wish to leave you a remembrance, but have uothing but a hair brush left, will you accept that from me and thereby afford me my last pleasure?" He was now summoned to the place of execution. An officer approached/bim with handcuffs and fetters, but he said, "No, I will die a tree German! Believe me, I will make no effort to excape—spare me from your chains." His request was granted and the procession moved on, guarded by two thousand military. On his way he became affected to tears, and remarked to those around him. Robert Blum has indeed wept, but not the delegate Blum; he dies with a free connecience. The husband, the father weeps. I was thinking of my dear wife and children."

At 74 A. M. they arrived at the place of execution. Blum bas indeed went to the order and the place of execution. Blum bas indeed went to the order and the place of execution. Blum bas not the delegate Blum; he dies with a free connecience. The husband, the father weeps. I was thinking of my dear wife and children."
