Mestra. A. B. & D. S. Entrus.—

GENTLENSE—Feelings of gratitude induce me to make a public achnowledgment of the benefit I have derived from the use of your Saranpardila. I have for several years been safficted with acroultous swellings in my bead, which if since would gather and discharge at my throat, nose, and ears, and si others would break out in different parts of my face and head. These continued until my threat, hose, and head were almost one complete sore, and for a long time I was so hearts that it was with the atmost difficulty that i croud a peak abore a waipeer. Daning this time I had servaria attacks of pieurisy and other discusse. I chandlad different physicians, sail tried various remedies, but received no benefit until I commenced until your farripardila. I am now well; the sores are all healed, and I stitchus the result entirely to the effect of your valuable medicine.

Yours, with respect and gratiquid.

Being personally acquainted with the person above named, I believe her statement to be correct.
