From my carliest recollections window and humanity have seemed to me to unlie in recom-mending such a law in the code of every nation. It is apparently a simil matter, but a most important one to the large mass. The father and hubband-may be a sot and a spendhrift; or he may have lost all from fires, shipwreck or other wishintons of Frovidence; or he may have been unfortunate in distress or disease; or he may have secrificed all-by too greenboxiy endowing for firsteds, and he may still be in dety. To labor in such a case, under our, laws, is nearly in hopeless issk. If a man makes, at any time, more than the law exempts from sale under gizcoultor, is limble to be seized and sacri-ficed-sold for, fail-a fourth or teath of its value, and this would be no benefit to the criftor, and therefore, every man would refines to make such a surplas, and thus his labor would be fuse to himself, and his fundy, and his country.
