STEAMER CRESCENT CITY FROM CHA. GRES.

tuny SA - . NEW YORK, Jan. 37, 1849. Chagres, having made the run out and back in About a month. She brings no later dates from California. The steamer running on the Pacific between Panama and San Francisco, had not are rived at Panama when the Crescent City left Chagres, consequently she brings no passengers or gold. She brings the intelligence, that there are not more than four hundred persons on the Isthmus Sa'es of keg in limited lots at 64,965.

and at the cities of Chagres and Panama, awaiting passage to the gold region. GREAT BATTLE IN YUCATAN-AMERI-CANS TRIUMPHANT. NEW ORIZANS, JED. 25.

By an arrival at this port, we have the following important intelligence : A great batile was fought in Yucatan [No date en;] between 8000 Indiana and 500 Ame The Indians were driven back by the Amer the latter losing 43 killed. An Indian town name

Tela, had capitulated, and was burnt by the Amer The Americans had marched towards Balsasas

" town near the capital, where a decisive battl was anticipated.

KENTUCKY BANK OF SCHUYLKILL BANK. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27, 1849. The Supreme Court have decided the case of the Kentucky Bank va the Schuylkill Bank; adverse to the latter. ZANDEVILLE, Jan. 27, 1849.

The Muskingum river has risen 23 feet. The river and canal are clear of ice, and boats are tak-ing in freight for departure.

The Eastern Markets were dull, and prices entirely without change. The expected arrival of two European steamers, has had the effect of virtually , disorganizing the commercial business these two or three last days.
