But if you finally conclude to withdraw, we shall be most happy to receive you; and when it shall please the Lord to take good old Deacon Grines to himself, (and a very few days must now give him his dismission.) we shall expect you to sit in his scal.'
After half an hour's pleasant conversation, the Deacon arose to take his departure. At that moment a boy came in and handed a billet to the minister. He glanced at the billet, and 'Deacon, sit down one moment,' said he. He read the billet, and after some hesitation said, 'I have received a singular some hesitation from our choir leader, he has some-how or other heard of your intention to join our
