Well, as we make no prefersions in that lide, if Post's charge of optimess does not discompose sin the least and if the editor can find anything fatter his own vanity, in comparing his per nes with ours, he is welco and comfort' it will give him.

OUR BOOK TABLE. "Corrise Porra, by D. Trueman. Mount Plea ont, Ohio, Printed and Published for the author by Enoch Harris."

This is a little volume of fugitive poems, whit possest some merit, without anything very extra ordinary, either in style or thought. The versi stom is smooth, and the sentiments are good his much we can say if no more. If we panno Snid much to praise, we find nothing to blameot say this much of the printing, howeve which is in exectable taste; old fashi out; obsolete cuts are strewed through the work without rhyme or reason. The binding is by Mr. ns, of this city, and is well done. It is for sale by Mr. Hopkins, 4th at.

In a word, I may any with truth, that both persons and property are insecture in Upper Cali-fornia at this time; and I am corry to add, that in all cases of outrage and violence, as yet discovered, emigranis from the United States, dishanded voluti-teers, ranaway selfors, and descriters from the army and nary, are believed to be the perpetraiors. The mutinies, attended with murder, to which I allinded in my letter No. 43, have been fully confirmed, and—not without good reason—has caused much uneasiness to shippers of gold from this coast. To guard each and every vessel asiling hence with large sums in gold dust, would require every abip of the navy. The best that I can do is to keep the vessels of this equation at eea as much as possible, plying between the ports most frequen-ts.
