The war appears to be at an end. The castle of Maracaibo was evacuated by the Paezists on the 2th uit. The steamer General Jackson's habeen captured and brought here with seventy prisopers, among whom are Col. Minchin, and the shree sons of General Paez—Saba, Ramon, and Carlos. The prisoners have been sent up to Carcas per steamer Labertador, late Augusta. The rest of Paez's party are all dispersed. Celis and the Baptistas are at large, and are supposed to have escaped into New Granada.
