CITT AND COUNTY SCRIP .-- A law has been passed the Senale in this State, which, if we inderstand it aright, will prove very injurions to Our city fathers shoul this city and bounty. inter to it before it passes the Hoase. Although we would not think it wise to make any new issues of scrip, yet the present issues answer an admirable for our local currency, and we hope the purpose for our local currency, and we more the State will not interfere with it. It is safe and use fal, and prevents us from being overrun with sma notes of other States.

After having been in the opposition for the las thirty years, with a brief interval of a few months thirty years, with a brief interval of a few months the "old Gozette" finds itself, for a wonder, an ad-ministration paper, boils Sittle and National. It is not surprising that it should feel a little strange in its new position, of finding domething to commend where it has heretofore found much to censure. Although an administration paper, we trust it will never foreswear its independence and its duty to the variant of the true and the for the year containg line. 1850. A complete, yet quiet and constitutional change. has taken place in the Government of this great nation,---a change not only of its officers, but also of its principles and political measures. After a reign of spurious Democracy, a true Demo cratic administration, supporting the principles of the earlyand pure founders of the Government ha come into power, and a happier era of greatness and prosperity has dawned upon the American The Government is now organized as fol lows President-Gen. Zachary Taylor, of Louisiana. Vice President-Millard Fillmore, of New York. Secretary of State-John M. Clayton, of Delaware fthe Treasury-Wm. M. Moredith, o Pennsylvania. Secretary of the Home Departm ing, of Ohio. Secretary of War-George W. Crawford, Georgia. Secretary of the Navy-William Ballar Post Master General-Jacob Collamer. Attorney Gen of Mary nuu. This is an administration possessing as much purity of character, matured talents, devoted patism, and sound sense, as any since the days o John Quincy Adams. In politics, it is essentially Whig, with y removed from the ultraisms of both d Southern factions, and intensely Anti-Polt and Anti-Locoloco. In principle, it is the very antipodes of the retiring administration. The country breathes more freely and fuller since it cust off the incubes upon its advancement to real great ness which has pressed her down for the last ex or even years.
