Concent.-Our readers will be delighted to see, by advertisement in the appropriate column, that Madame Biscaccianti, assisted by Mr. Hatton, and Signor Biscaccianti, will give another of her charming concerts at Apollo Hall, this evening .--The concert was well attended last evening, by a arge and most respectible audience, who express ed their pleasure in the most enthusiastic manner

A Review of a Report proposing a plan of edu cation for a Pittsburgh High School, prepared and read at a public meeting, by Professor Lemuel Ste-Western University; by Professor phone, of the Charles Elliott, of the same institution, has been received, and we shall commence the publication of it to morrow. It will appear in two consecutive numbers of our daily paper. As the subject is one of much importance, we commend it to the especial attention of our citizens.

Connecticut Election .- The general election in the state of Connecticut, took place yesterday. 1 was no doubt an exciting one. As respects the Governor and other State officers, there are three parties in the field, all having different candidutes; parties in the field, all naving different cardidates, but, in two out of the three Whig Congressional Districts, the Democrats and Free-Soilers have coalesced to defeat the Whigs, by uniting on the same candidates for Congress. The districts which and that only two of them are contemplated. it is thus attempted to give to the opposition are those lately represented by Messrs. James Dixor and John A. Rockwell.

Porrelative.--- It seems the announcement of M FORWARD's appointment, to the Post-Office of this city was premature. Samuer Roskbungh, Edq. i the successful applicant for the office, and we pre same will enter upon his duties immediately. Mr. Roseburg is an old and respectable citizen, and well and favorably known, and will no doubt make a good officer. Mr. Forward, it is presumable, we serve from the Government on appointmen more suitable to his name and merits.

Manstorn Cargo.-The St. Lotus papers an nounce the departure from that city of the steamer Sultans with a freight of sixteen hundred tons. She was from Quincy, Illinois, and hound to New Urleans. The articles composing har cargo are pub. lianed as follows: Pork and beer 3,505 bbls., pickled beef and hams 1,340 tierces; lard 483 tierces; lard

1,053 bbls; flour 3,275 bbls; tile 250 Mead, and af ditional pork 570 lbs. This is said to be the lar grest cargo which over came down the Missis-

SLAVERY IN KETTUCKY .- The Louisville Courier SLAVERY IN KENTUCKY.-- I no LOUMAVILE COUPER indees the following important statement: "The new Constitution will fail, if it attempts to perpetuate Slavery in Kentucky." [Those who de-sire other amendments cannot afford to lose the strong of the emancipators, otherwise the present constitution must remain as it hs.
