PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE

COMMITTEE FOR APRIL.

JAS. MARSHALL. T. S. CLARKE. JNO. SHIPTON.

OFFICE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, Monday Morning, April 30, 1849

The weather on Saturday was warm and gloomy, with occasional slight showers, yet a considerable amount of business was done on the wharf. The importations of Sugar, Hemp, Bulk Meat, Flour, &c, though not very heavy, were to a fair amount. Business throughout the city continued dull.

Before the publication of our paper, we shall likely have rain in sufficient quantity to raise the Ohio still higher than the present fine stage of water.

FLOUR—Receipts by the river, on Saturday, were light, and, as usual, of late, a considerable proportion was intended for the Eastern markets. In consequence of orders being in town for the purchase of the article, & an animated competition arising among the buyers, a rapid advance took place in price. The market opened with a small sale at the closing rate of the preceding day @ $3,50 ₱ bbl, after which we note sales of our lot of 348 bbls at $3,60, and another lot of 319 bbls at $3,70, which, so far as we can learn—was the closing price. We do not think, however, that so high a rate, as the last quotations, can, for any considerable length of time, be maintained.

PROVISIONS—Prices remain firm, but we could hear of no heavy operations. We continue our quotations, as of the previous day; Shoulders and Hams at 4¢ and 4½¢, and Sides at 5¢ ₱ lb; country cured assorted at 5¢. Canvassed Hams at 7¢, and Sugar-cured at 8@8½¢ ₱ lb.

GROCERIES—We notice no new feature in the market. Sales are dull, but prices steady at our former quotations. We quote Coffee at 7½@8c ₱ lb, N O Sugar, prime, 5¢ by the hhd, and 5¢ ₱ lb by the bl. Sales of N O Molasses at 27@29c ₱ gall, according to cooperage and quantity. Sugar house Molasses at 43c ₱ gall.

RYE FLOUR—Regular sales at $2,50@2,60 cts ₱ barrel.

HIDES—Owing to the recent advance which has taken place in St Louis, we have to note sales brisk at 9@10c same for Missouri.

CALF SKINS—Are scarce and in demand at 8@9 @ 9 dos.

OILS—We have no large operations to notice, but with regular sales from store. We quote Linseed at 58@60c. Lard 55@60¢, Olive $1,30@1,50. Sperm, bleached, at $1,30, do unbleached and fall $1,25. White 65c ₱ gall. Tanners' $1@$1,5 ₱ bbl.

FEATHERS—The stock in market is light, and the demand good. Sales at 33@35c—according to quality.

CHEESE—The market is firm with sales of W R's 6c, and Cream at 7c ₱ lb.

BEANS—The market is well supplied. Sales, dull at 50@62½c ₱ bu.

BAGS—In good demand at 3½@3¾ cts ₱ lb—as in quality.

RICE—We quote regular sales from store at 4@4¼ ₱ lb, by the tierce.

BUCKETS AND TUBS—A fair stock in market—We quote sales of Buckets at $2,25, and Tubs at $8,75 ₱ doz.

INVALUABLE COMPOSITION FOR THE HAIR.

From the Olive Branch, of March 7, 1846.

HYPERION FLUID.—Mr. William Bogle, 293 Washington street, is the inventor of this valuable vegetable composition, which is pronounced by many who have used it, one of the greatest eradicators of the diseases of the head ever made use of. We have been cognizant of its beneficial effects in some instances, and our own cranium is now submitted to its influence. In addition to its cleansing and curative properties, it gives a splendid and glossy appearance to the hair, and contributes an agreeable moisture, quite unlike the greasy produced by the oils in general use, it being wholly free from such properties. We can commend the article already, and shall say yet more after further trial.

REPORTED FOR THE PITTSBURGH DAILY GAZETTE.

LECTURE.—We give below the correspondence between Mr. J. H. Drumm, and the Committee of the Mercy Hospital.

We are sure that the lecture will be a most interesting and eloquent one.

PITTSBURGH, April 27, 1849.

MR. JNO. HETHERINGTON DRUMM.

SIR—The committee of ladies appointed in behalf of the Mercy Hospital, to collect funds in aid of that institution, respectfully solicit your co-operation in the attainment of that desirable object. Knowing your familiar acquaintance with the history of Ireland, and being aware of the deep interest you take in the welfare of your native land, we think that a lecture delivered by you on that interesting subject, would be very acceptable to the citizens of Pittsburgh, and would materially aid us in our object. If you can conveniently accede to our wishes, please advise us of your acceptance of our invitation at as early an hour as practicable.

Very respectfully, yours, &c.,

Mrs. W. E. Hern,	Mrs. C. Ihmsen,

MERCURY OFFICE, April 27, 1849.

J. H. Drumm presents his compliments to the Ladies of the Committee for collecting funds for the Mercy Hospital, and begs to acknowledge the receipt of their flattering note inviting him to Lecture in behalf of this institution. So far as in his power, J. H. D. will be glad to aid the Ladies of the Committee in a matter of such real importance to the community. FINE BUILDING.—One of the very finest buildings in our City, is that nearly opposite our office belonging to Mr. Benjamin Singerly, publisher of that very excellent counterfeit detector, "Sibbet's Review."

It is twenty feet front, by eighty feet deep, and was constructed under the superintendance of Mr. Joseph Singerly, Architect.

It is Four Stories in height, stuccoed very beautifully, and has fine cast iron mouldings over the windows. The basement is occupied as the office of "Sibbet's Counterfeit Detector."

The first by the New Periodical Office of Messr's Work, and Holmes, and the office of the Despatch.

The second story is occupied by Kennedy's Job Printing Office, and the office of that very excellent Whig paper, the West Pennsylvanische Staats Zeitung.

In the third story is the Book Bindery of Mr. Williams, and the Publication Office of the Temperance Banner, while the fourth story contains the Composing Room of the "Pittsburgh Daily Mercury."

Taken altogether this building is the finest of that kind in our City, and does credit to the taste of the architect.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

MORNING SESSION.

Saturday, April 28, 1849.

Present, Hon. Benjamin Patton, President Judge, and Saml. Jones and William Kerr, Associate Judges.

The first case taken up was that of Zimmerlier, who had pleaded guilty to the murder of his wife, and was sentenced to twelve years imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary.

Two motions were before the Court, and were argued this morning. The first, was an arrest of judgment in the case of Drs. Dickson and Herron and Mr. Boyd, and the other was a motion for a new trial in the same case. Hon. Moses Hampton appeared in behalf of Dr. Herron, and argued that the evidence against this gentleman would only go to show, that he had a knowledge that such an offence was about to be committed, and that he advised those persons who were alleged to have committed it, to have nothing to do with it. Now where a person knew beforehand that an offence was about to be committed, and said nothing about it either way, he could not be regarded as an accessary to a felony, but could only be considered as guilty of
