For the Pittaburgh Daily Gazette FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE GREAT FIRE IN ST. LOUISIN UST OF THE SUFFERERS AND CLASS OF BUSINESS-TWENTY LIVES LOST! Four Hundred and Eighteen Houses Destroyed ! Cholera Declining!

Sr. Louis, May 21.

Now that the confusion and uproar have suba ded, we are able to obtain a thierably full and accurate list of the sufferers by the great confingra-tion. We furnish you with the record, so far asable dealers and principal firms extend. There are hundreds of small dealers' burnt out, This number of houses burnt furnish. This number of houses burnt runs up to Four Hundred and Eighteen: but the suddest part of the great calamity remains to be told; in the loss of human life. It is believed that twenty lives have been lost in the flames, or by the casualties cident to a great fire souch as the falling of walls and stacks, and some on board the steam it is now estimated that the loss of property by this fire will amount to Six Millions of Dollars. There was a large amount of insurance, and it is believed that the Insurance Companies will generally be able to pay their losses in full. The principal sufferers by the fire are as fol-
