any unmunistration of Gen. Taylor. Even before he was inaugurated, the effort was made to tarnish his fair fame. Ever since he has been in office, the wrath of party malignity has been poured upon him. If an officer is removed, no matter for what cause, it is held up as a disgraceful violation of pledges.—If there is a seeming hesitation in removing another, it is declared to evidence a spirit, of trepidation which lets, "I dare not, wait upon I would." But it is not sufficient that the President himself is attacked. Every member of his cabinet, collectively and individually, are stigmatized. All together, they are called by the Union, "bow minded tunprincipled, and shamnless politicians;" Mr. Ewing is denounced as "feroclous and proscriptive;" Mr. Collamer is called "ortnous and unscrupulous," while an inferior functionary is villified as a "political profligate."

ious," while an interior identionary is vinited as a "political profligate."

The article in the Union, in which these denuciations and slanders appeared, has heretofore been noticed in our columns, in a letter from our Washington correspondent. The article had escaped our attention, till it was directed to it, by that letter (for we do not—does any body?—feel obliged to read all that the Union says on this gubject). We read with amazement the extracts which were incorporated in that letter, and we have since, by a dignified review of it, in the Intelligencer of this morning, been induced to read it through.

We tought any.—and so will every tight mind-it through. We must say,—and so will every right mind-ed man who reads it—that never, in the worst party times and in the least acrupulous of party papers, did ever such an attack appear, as is that of the Union, of Tuesday, on Gen. Taylor and his Cohmet.

Cabinet.

And what is the excuse, or rather the pretence for this attack? Has the Constitution been violated—any law set at definance—or doubtful power assumed? None, none. Has the rights of any man been violated—has any one, who has a claim on the government, been treated with neglect or had his claim disallowed? No. Has any one been wronged in person, property, or liberty! had his claim disallowed? No. Has any one been wronged in person, property, or liberty!—
No. What is it, 'hen, that causes the Union to open its visis of wrath upon the administration? It would scarcely be believed, if it were not that the public mind is prepared to hear any thing of the opposition, that all that Gen. Taylor and his Cabinet have done, is not to keep in office the men whom Mr. Polk and other Locofoco administrations appointed for their particians services. nen whom Mr. Folk and other Locafoco administrations appointed for their parlizati services.—
That is all. These men were, some of them, defaulters, some of them of even more doobtful honesty, all of them unscrapulous partizans, and none of them ought ever to have been appointed. But this is nothing in the eyes of the Union. They are Locofocos. That is their only recommendation, and that is all the Union wants. Very well. What recommends them to the Union condemn Mr. Polk and Gen. Cass in the eyes of the people, and they will not object, let the Union rail ever so loud, that the subsiteries are turned out for the same reason that the people relived to put Gen. Cass in.

The steamer Highland Mary, which arrived from St. Joseph yesterday, brings distressing accounts of the sufferings and deaths from cholera on the steamboats going up with emigrants on board, and at some of the fluoren on the Missouri river. The steamer Mary was met below Fort Lavenswerth, and forty ofher passengers and crew had died from cholera. The Monroe was lying at Jefferson City deserted by her officers; cloven of her passengers and crew died yesterday, between the hours of 11 A. M. and 2 P. M., including one of the pilota, an engineer; and the bar keeper, and twenty others on board were sick. Every boat going up had more or less sickness on board, and a number of deaths. The Highland Mary lost three men going up, and the stowart died coming down. At Independence, St. Jeseph, and Kansas sickness prevailed to a great extent among the emigrants and ditrens. Twenty five, of the troops taken up to Fort Lavenworth by the St. Paul had died, and at Kansas fourteen were reported to have taken place in one night and several on the following day.
