Orrida, Pertaguade Gazerta, Friday Morning, June 1, 1849. Friday Morning, June 1, 1840.

The weather yesterday, was clear and pleasant though business appeared at a stand. We may remark however, that in the way of general sales, a fair a mount of business was transacted, at quantions, showing no important change from last raport.

The tiver is now in excellent order for all the purposes of trade, but owing to the searcity of freights, very little is doing in that quarter.

FLOUR—The receipts yesterday, were comparative ly light, and the market, if any thing, was more dull.

SPORTED FOR THE PITTEBURGH DAILY GAZETTE MALICIOUS MISCRIEF .- A boy was bound over appear at the next Court of Quarter Sessions, or Vednesday, by the Mayor of Allegheny, for tear CHOLERA.-We hear many rumors every day, city or Allegheny, but on tracing the reports to Robinson Township, was struck by lightning on Wednesday, and the electric fluid communicating fire to the various combustible substances with which it was filled, it was burnt to the ground. The lightning has been playing strange pranks around Pittsburgh for some time past: burning houses and rending to pieces many a huge granted oak of a century's growth. The weather still con nuing cloudy, we are afraid that this is not the ole event of the kind we will have to chronicle Surely the feeling of security which they afford, if nothing else should induce our citizens to put up lightning rods, at least on buildings the situation of which expose them to the attacks of this mys terious, yet all powerful agent.

CLOTHING STORE.—We notice that our old friend Mr. John Forsyth, merchant tailor, has removed to his splendid new house on Market Street, where age. Mr. Forsyth will, we are sure, give employs of great skill in their business.

FIRE NEW GOODS .- We call the attention of or rejoicing in the exphonious name of Philomena Buzzy, yesterday entered a complaint charging men and as many women were brought before the Mayor this morning, charged with drunken-ness. One of the men paid his fine, and was disonly crime is drunkenness. He has been habit-ally intemperate, for, as the legal term has it, "time whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary." For five and twenty weary years has he led this life of a drunkard, as we are as sured by one of the watchmen, and yet he was mise that he would come to the Mayor's Office, pay his fine, and Sehave better in future. He, however, forgetful of his "promise plighted," failed to come until his memory was refreshed by a fresh Accident.—A young lad named Fritz, who was

Stand up, if thou art right!
With happy words and strong!
Plead in darkness—speak in light,
Or pour thy thoughts in song.
Stand up! you best know how,
By prose, by speech, or rhyme,
The thoughts you breathe shall quicken now
And vibrate through all time!
