THE MOST REMARKABLE WORK OF THE AGE.—Layard's Nineveh.—Nineveh and its Remains, with an account of a visit to the Chaldean Christians of Kurdistan, and the Yezidis, or Devil Worshippers; and an inquiry into the manners and arts of the ancient Assyrians, by Austen Henry Layard, Esq., D. C. L.; in two volumes, with numerous illustrations.

"There is a remarkable and delightful combination in the work before us, of valuable discovery and interesting personal narration, such as we remember in no other work of travel or discovery. * * Mr. Layard is not surpassed by the old travelers. In the wonders of the story he has to tell, he very much surpasses them all

"We repeat that there has been no such picture in any modern book or travels. Park is not braver or more adventurous, Barkhardt is not more truthful for the accommodation of travelers, boarders, and fee gentlemen generally, the house and furniture are entirely new, and no pains or expense have been spared to render it one of the most comfortable and pleasant Hotels in the city.
