THE MOST REMARKABLE WORK OF THE AGE.—LAYARD'S NINEVEH.—Nineveh and its Remains; with an account of a visit to the Chaldean Christians of Kurdistan, and Yezidis, or Devil Worshippers, and an inquiry into the manners and arts of the ancient Assyrians. By Austen Henry Layard, Esq., D. C. L., in two volumes, with numerous illustrations. Just received at the Bible and Publication Rooms, and for sale by the dozen or single copy. The above work is now in the hands of every one of the reading public, and is not surpassed by the old travellers in the interesting personal narration, such as we remember in no similar work of travel or discovery. * * Mr. Layard is not surpassed by the old travellers in the vivid delineations of the story he has to tell, he very much surpasses them all.

We repeat that there has been no such picture in any modern book of travels. Park is not richer or more adventurous, Bruce is not more truthful, Robinson not more gay or picturesque, than the hero of "One of the most remarkable works of the age."—London Times. Just received and for sale by
