FROM NEW YORK.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

New York, Sept. 11.

The news from Europe has well depicted.

the appearance of things abroad indicates that the present reform which has been with effect, except to so far as it has been liberty to think and so thoroughly that, the next step will sweep away all the old barriers that oppose the people. The English journals express the opinion that the present reform between Russia and England, in consequence of a treaty, the former a report on the Mediterranean, from which the fleets of Russia are now excluded, except by the treaty of the Straits.

The treaty of Vienna, in 1815, Russia was prohibited from having a fleet in the Mediterranean sea, and the present treaty, it is said, would enable her to violate the treaty, and place a squadron in the classic waters of the Mediterranean, ready to oppose England. This step of war is very great, and it is said that the government of England, in consequence of this step, the peace of 1815, has had no conditions but in vain, and her energy has been devoted to the extension of her commerce, which has grown to the point of the world. A change has come over the spirit of her statesmen, and we shall not have another war for the sake of a few millions of dollars.

No voice is now more popular than the five percent of Pennsylvania, which is active demand for permanent taxation at 50 percent.

This is higher than the rate in any other State, and it is said that the State of New York is now paying 10 percent on its bonds.

The judicial council of the New York State for the past year has been re-elected, and the commissioners of the State have been re-

-elected, and the State has been re-elected.
