Two Local Matters are now engaging the attention of the Councils of Allegheny City.

Two Fine Specimens

Let every Whig here and in the country, unite the last pull in your election districts, and if your name is not there, have yourself entered immediately—for if you are not on the list you cannot vote. Remember, also, that the last day to qualify is Monday next. Now, then, Whigs, stand to your guns and you will have your vote.

Our correspondent "Citizen" writes us in defence of the Post, on the shipbuilder question, most beautifully. We have room for only the following extract:

The Post has been exhibiting the spectacle of a man who has been for years in the habit of
