As a martie dby Fon Subold, the latest wires on the part of the Lapanne, that it is from political, and not religious motives on the part of the Lapanne, that it is from political, and not religious motives on the part of the Lapanne, that for its proper is and money of the part of the Lapanne, that for its property introduced a page the world, one would so for a ready that of all the people is used. Its property introduced among them theore, it is not on the people of the world, one would so for a facility of the property introduced among them. Hence, it is not on the people of the introduction of Christians, and the categories of the property introduced among them. Hence, it is not only the people of the introduction of Christians, that of hope of the introduction of Christians, and the categories of the property introduced among them the former to be regarded with fear and batted by this race.

After the categories of Christians, and company succeeded in making an arrangement with the Japannes by which they were permitted to end two ships from Battava annually. These is the property of the property

No sconer had the usurper attained the soverextry, than he began a persecution against the supporters of his rival. The native Christians, as well as the Jesuita and foreigners, were murdered wherever they could be found, and from that time the most rigorous system of exclusion has been followed.

Notwithstanding this persecution and exclusion, it is asserted by You Suehold, the listest writer on Japan, that it is from political, and not religious motives on the part of the Japanese, that fore extra reson to this people is such, (as far as we are able to judge from the Imperfect account we have of it.)
