Navary 12th — The Times correspondent leaves to the substance of the plan of the a piparent simplicity of this otherwise so difficult and dangerous operation, in the hands of Dr. Determined to the Atlantic who performs lithotomy with a common scalpel. The atone extracted was rough an and of considerable size, and when, about twenty minutes after one o'clock, the family physician made his appearance, the patient, who was already comfortably in bed again, told him, laughering, 'Doctor,' you are too late."

After the operation, Dr. Detmold politely invited
