To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette : The Cattle Show. Uzas Siz-Haviog been in attendance at th Cattle Show, recently held in the city of Allegheny, I beg leave to offer a few remarks. It was much to be regretted the unpropiliousness of the day, as it rendered the operations of the Society tedious It rendered the operations of the Society fedicises and projecting, as well as preventing numbers from witnessing the exbibition, which must have gratified all who takes an interest in stock. "There was one circumstacco connected with the exhibition of the stock, which had a tendency

Wages, from 55 to $20 per day, and heard from 53 to $12 Junces are valued about the same as dollars in the States; but expenses are in proportion, so that here is no great difference. Gambling is carried in extensively; thousands are staked—list or won as the case may be—with perfect indifference. Almost every country has its representatives as the case may be with perfect instances. Almost every country has its representatives bere, forming a beterogenous mass of what can ardly be called secrety.
