o take measures to husten the annexation of he British Provinces on our Northern frontier-or such an event will inevitably take place at no distant day—yet we conceive we should be prepared cordinly to receive them who never we can do so without disturbing our friendly relations with Great Britain. We should deprecate a war with England for such a purpose, but if the Union can peaceably be brought about, it will in our opinon, prove of great ultimate benefit to all concerns

Ohio Legislature.
According to be best accounts, the Legislature of Ohio, for the coming session, will stand as follows: In the Senate, sixteen Whigs, sixteen Locofocos and four Free Soilers; in the House, thirty-one Whigs, thirty-dwe Locofocos, and 6 Free Soilers. The Free Soilers of the Senate are Means: Beaver and Blake, Whig, and Mr. Swift, Locofocos co, holding over, and Mr. Randall, re-elected, who acted, lest year, with the Whige, but, who, this year, has been elected in opposition to a Whig candidate The number of eixteen Whige in the Senate, in cludes Mr. Broadwell of the first district in Ham ilton county, who, it is known, will be opposed on taking his seat, by the whole Locofoco force of the State, legal and illegal, peaceable and forcible The particular form which that opposition will take The particular form which that opposition will take cannot; at this moment, be predicted with certainity, but of one thing we are assured—that it will be strenous and untiting in the means employed, as it is unconsionable and revolutionary in the result to be produced.

Including Mesars. Blake and Beaver among the White, and including Mr. Broadwell, the number is seventeen. Include Mr. Swift among the Locations of the ferror exploration of the ferror exploration of the ferror exploration.

cofocos, and their force reaches the same number. It is evident then, that the admission of Mr. Broad-well, (if it cames to a vote) depends upon the ac-tion of Mr. Randell. If the vote of that gentleman auring the past two sessions are to be taken as the indices of his future acts and opinions, as un-questionably they are, Mr. Broadwell will be ad-mitted, and the organization of that branch will be

JOHN MITCHEL BOT RELEASED. The Dublin Irishman has the following notice of the an-nouncement that John Mitchel had been released. A paragraph, which originated with the Limer-ick Chronicle, sates that, "The family of John Mitchel received sodification from the English government, to the effect that they, (the govern-ment) having taken juic consideration the condigovernment, to the effect that they, (the govern-ment) having taken into consideration—the condi-tion of John Mitchel's bealth, have granted him free leave and blorry to go wheresever he pleases, with the exception that he shall not return to or settle in any portion or colony of the United King-dom.

David Webster, next to his oldest brother, marriced Mirs. Hunnon. He was a farmer, and at an early day removed with his family of Canada, where he lived and died. He had a large family of children, and some of the descendants are eminent men and womes, who are making their mark on the time. Some of them held important offices under the government of that country.
Joseph Webster, the next brother, married a Miss Colby. He was somewhat remarkable for his réady wit. He, too, was a farmer. He died January 25th, 1910, aged 41. He had two children, who I think are still living.
Mahitable Webster was the third sister.

On the other hand, the New York Herald has the following:

Considerable excitement has been created here, among those who have made abloments of merchandse to California, by the receipt of the letters from commission houses in San Francisco, containing accounts of sales. A correspondent of the New York Courier and Enquirer has lately been furnishing some interesting reminisences in relation to Dantz. Werstram and his family. From the last pupilshed, we condense the following, concerning The Birth Place of Dantel Webster—His Brethers and Bisters.

The Hon. Dantz. Warstra was born on the lighway. The House in which that important event happened, stood on the highway, called the North Road, far up the western hill which borders on the valley of the Merrimack. Not a vestige of that habitation remains to designate the place, except the cellar, now partly filled up, and the trunk of an ancient apple tree, which is now nearly dead, but from which near the earth is aprouning forth a few thirds in the old well in which has a prouning forth a few thirds were reaccustomed to draw the pters and cool water to alake their thirst, as I drew it yearday to demand their thirst, as I drew it yearday to demand their thirst, as I drew it yearday to demand their thirst, as I drew it yearday to demand their thirst, as I drew it yearday to demand their thirst, as I drew it yearday to demand their thirst, as I drew it yearday to demand their thirst, as I drew it yearday to demand the rithing and the next design the rithing and the next design the rithing and the rest design the rithing the rithing and the rithin Consumation.—On Sabbath last, the new Roman Catholic Church erected in this place, was dedicated to St. Peter by the Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Conner, of this diocree. The ceremonies were witnessed by an Immense concourse of people who had assembled for the occasion. The exercises were imposing, and passed off with great harmony. Syveral discourses were clivered on the occasion by Rev. O'Conner and others in an able and learned manner. The Church is large, and tastefully decorated.—Butler Dem.
