WHENTING : I think it would be worth while to extract from the Wheeling papers, at least occa-sionally, their list of arrivals and departures of steam boats at that place. Such lists are well adspied to show how comparatively unimportan is the business of that place, and how very injuri is the bridge there, may be to the commerce of the Ohio. I have, for instance, before me now, the Wheeling Gazette, of Tuesday moraing, with the arrivals and departures for 46 hours.

artivals and dopartures for 46 hours. — The artivals ware, twenty ; cleven from Film-burgh, on their ways (from Cincinsti and S.; biven were on their ways from Cincinsti and S.; Louitho Fittchurgh and fore was on its way from Zaogavilo to this place.
