PROM WASHINGTON.

Correspontence of the Pitteburgh Gazette. Wasultworon, Dec. 5, 1849. In the postscript to last night's letter, I communinicated the fact of the reconsideration and revo estion by the Democrats of their nomination for Speaker, made on Saturday night leaf, so that this, Saturday moraing found them, precisely where they were on the preceding one-without a candidate, with no ground for believing that they could agree upon one. I think I need in ake no apology for continuing to discourse upon the subject of the organization of the House, and the position of men and parties with regard to it. Just now, this is the point anot some the struggle may appear a mere wrangle shout men-s conflict of personal preferences. It is, upon the contrary, but another plane of the dress persise rivalry of two great divisions of our Union, which circumstances have put in opposition to one another. But i must not inflict a sermon, and those a notations upon the matter of an elso-tion of a Speaker of the present House of Repre-for the present House of Repre-tion of a Speaker of the present House of Repre-tion of a Speaker of the present House of Repre-tion of a Speaker of the present House of Repre-tion of a Speaker of the present House of Repre-tion of a Speaker of the present House of Repre-tion of a Speaker of the present House of Repre-tion of a Speaker of the present House of Repre-tion of a Speaker of the present House of Repre-tion of a Speaker of the present House of Repre-tion of a Speaker of the present House of Repre-tion of a Speaker of the present House of Repre-tion of the statives.
