TAXATION OF MONEY AT INTEREST. - The report mends the Legislature to exempt money at at from taxation except for State purposes.-He argues that the State now loves a revenue of about $180,000, a moderate estimate, in coatequence of concealment of this kind of property to evade the multitude of taxes for State, County, township, school and other purposes (averaging over the State now about 21 per centum !) whi it now has to bear. He thinks that if only the three mills State tax was imposed, the motive for concealment and evasion would be as email as to induce a universal return of it to the assessor.— Ho says, he is aware it will be said that money at interest abould be subject, like real estate, to all in interest known to anyter, into the principle regula-taxes. The position though mainly correct is the abstract, ruled adversely to the principle regula-ting revenue. Money, unlike real estate, can ting, reveaue. Money, units real estate, cha easily aradie the acriuity of the assessor. $120, 000,000 is the amount in this State, estimated to be conceiled, and uniaxed at this time !
