When to this is added the loss consequent on the operation of the ten hour law, which is manifestly unequal, and therefore unjust, it is matter of surprise that they are able to continue their business at all, and instead of receiving repreach, they deserve commendation. On the ten hour law, we wish to make a few rick. With the design of this provision, we find no fault, but object to the inequality and insignation of its operations. As confinedation to this state, it is calculated to break down our was manufactories for the benefit of there in sister states. It has put a complete stop to the spection of factories in this vicinity, while they are growing up in every state of the Union. We consider this neither wise nor just, but have made we our minds to submit to it without further dis-Bers us from the inequality. But sheer justice,
