Mayor's Orrice Jan. 29 .- Two women of col or, from a house of bad repute in Virgin Alley, were brought up by the watch for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. They were fined 67 etcach.
John Kook, a colored boy, was fined 67 cents or the same offence. Two news boys were brought up for the larceny of a small quantity of change from the drawer of the Morning Post effice. The boys were quite young, and, as they appeared penitent, and promised re-formation, they were discharged. A colored man laid complaint against another for assault and battery. The man charged with the offence was arrested, but the complainant failed to appear, and, as he was charged by defendant with having made the assault himself, he, also, was arrested. Both were fined. also, was arrested. Both were fined.

A man named Oliver was arrested for having purchased a load of oats at the river, during market hours, in violation of the city ordinance. As Mr. Oliver plead ignorance of the law the fine of five dollars was reduced to two, with the costs. John Veon was arrested for exposing spoiled poultry for sale in the market square.
