The old merchant wept with joy at such a The old merchant webt with Joy at such a reform, and acknowledged that this single incident had repaid him for the hours and days, and weeks he had devoted, always prayerfully, to the blessed cause of kindness and prison reform.

MARRIAGE BY A JUSTICE OF THE PRACE The wise men of the nation, says the Episcopal Recorder, assembled in the city of Washington, for the dispatch of public business, occasionally indulge in a sally of business, occasionally indulge in a sally of wit or humerous anecduse to relieve the monotony of legislation, or soften the asperities which exciting subjects somentmes occasion. A few days ago, the gravity of the Senate chamber had its equanimity somewhat disturbed by one of its members giving the following reminiscence:

I will relate a little circumstance that occasions are a little circumstance.

Justice of the Peace, for I filled that office even before I became a Senator. A couple to me to be united in the holy bonds of wedlock. Well, I made short work of it. I said to the man: "Do you take this woman to be your wife!" Certamity!" said he, "I becamber 29, 1845; Wisconsin, December 29, 1845; Wisconsin, Decemb curred once in my recollection when I was a Justice of the Peace, for I filled that office

True enough, it has become indeed a very small affair. But we see some indications in the all-powerful "press," which leads us to hope that a day is not distant when there shall be a return to the more serious practice of our forefathers, in this matter, and the act of marriage will have thrown around it as sacredness and importance, which the "short work" of a hurried Justice of the Peace is calculated to impart. The Terre Haute-Journal has broken ground on the subject, in an article which contains a good mix-office has been substituted for the Unirch and the altar, the statute for the prayer-book, and the Justice of the district for the Pastor. It requires no nerve now to "take a solem" vow," for the man who can make affidavit to an "ear-mark," can stated up before his to an "ear-mark," can stated up before his to an "ear-mark," can stated up before his to an "ear-mark," and the Justice of the district for his can make affidavit visit on "ear-mark," can stated up before his to an "ear-mark," can stated up before his to an "ear-mark," can stated up before his worse." Matrimonial atlances are thus early made, and quite as easily broken. The

We have not "the papers" to show the fact, but from the general information which memory has in her library, on the subject, we believe we are authorized in saying that a greater number of unhappy marriages are contracted in these latter days than formerly; and that, in consequence, more applications are made and granted for diverce. The principal reason for this is, that the old fashion of the papers is a great measure give
