bee. I am cerain cond with the coals for this and other matters.

Upon the whole, I shall not describe the scene between Old Bullion and Foote, further than to say that they called each other backguards, and Mr. Benton talked of knudgeling Foote out of the Senate Chamber. Foote was the aggressor .-They say there will be a fight about it, but there i FROM HARRISBURGH.

The following testimonial in favor of "Paher's Marnice Water Gauge," occurs from an expectative asource as to entitle it to great consideration:

PERS Corror of Mitt., Pittaburgh, February 22, 1024 (

Dear Sir.—Agreeably to request, we will give you our opinion in respect to the utility and practical workings of "Paher's Magnetic Water Gauge," which has been in operation on the Boilers in our works some eight months.
