The right of way has been generally secured, on the whole line. Between this city and Beaver the work has been prosecuted with industry, and with gratifying success. Between the State line and the Gleveland road, the right of way is almost entirely secured, through the indefatigable exertions of one of the Directors, Zanos Stratt, Eq., of Salem, who has spared no time or exertions to from other brings of the Company.

Under these favorable circumstances of the enterprize, there is nothing extravagant in anticipating that, by the first of Joly, 1851, the cars will be running from Pittaburgh to Cleveland, and to Massillon, on the Onio Canal—and, by the casaing fall—if the citizens of Wayne and Richland counties come up to the work with proper spirit, and we believe they will—the road stay to faithful.

The Columbiana county Division, between the State line, and the line of the Welisville and Cleveland road, is nearly ready for letting,—the locating party being expected to faish their work in a few days. This Division was been subscribed in Columbians county from the cuttes of Phisburgh, and diagonal to the country and to the cities of faish their work in a few days. This Division will be let to contractors on the Sth of May. Sufficient stock has been subscribed in Columbians county, mostly in Salerm to grade and bridge the road through that county. Salerm has done nobly, for more than Pittsburgh, in proportion to her knewns, and she promises to do still more. There is a small section of this Division, which passes through a corner of Mahoning county, for which no provision has been made, and the Directors confidently look to Pittsburgh to supply the necessary means.
