

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, April 10, 1850.

The House of Representatives has at length passed a bill to amend the act in relation to the admission of new States into the Union, which was passed on the 10th

of the present month.

The bill is now in the hands of the President.

It is believed that he will sign it on the 12th

of the present month.

The bill is a compromise

between the two great

sections of the country.

It is believed that it

will be passed in the Senate on the 12th

of the present month.

The bill is a compromise

between the two great

sections of the country.

It is believed that it

will be passed in the

Senate on the 12th

of the present month.

The bill is a compromise

between the two great

sections of the country.

It is believed that it

will be passed in the

Senate on the 12th

of the present month.

The bill is a compromise

between the two great

sections of the country.

It is believed that it

will be passed in the

Senate on the 12th

of the present month.

The bill is a compromise

between the two great

sections of the country.

It is believed that it

will be passed in the

Senate on the 12th

of the present month.

The bill is a compromise

between the two great

sections of the country.

It is believed that it

will be passed in the

Senate on the 12th

of the present month.

The bill is a compromise

between the two great

sections of the country.

It is believed that it

will be passed in the

Senate on the 12th

of the present month.

The bill is a compromise

between the two great

sections of the country.

It is believed that it

will be passed in the

Senate on the 12th

of the present month.

The bill is a compromise

between the two great

sections of the country.

It is believed that it

will be passed in the

Senate on the 12th

of the present month.

The bill is a compromise

between the two great

sections of the country.

It is believed that it

will be passed in the

Senate on the 12th

of the present month.

The bill is a compromise

between the two great

sections of the country.

It is believed that it

THE KEYSTONE STATE AND THE SLAVERY QUESTION.

By Wm. H. Hunt.

Mr. Hunt, a Whig from Pennsylvania,

proposes to pass a few resolutions

on the subject of public opinion.

A few short months

ago, we elected a Whig Governor

and a Whig Legislature.

It is now a question

whether we are to remain

Whigs, or to become

Democrats.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

THE KEYSTONE STATE AND THE SLAVERY QUESTION.

By Wm. H. Hunt.

Mr. Hunt, a Whig from Pennsylvania,

proposes to pass a few resolutions

on the subject of public opinion.

A few short months

ago, we elected a Whig Governor

and a Whig Legislature.

It is now a question

whether we are to remain

Whigs, or to become

Democrats.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

THE KEYSTONE STATE AND THE SLAVERY QUESTION.

By Wm. H. Hunt.

Mr. Hunt, a Whig from Pennsylvania,

proposes to pass a few resolutions

on the subject of public opinion.

A few short months

ago, we elected a Whig Governor

and a Whig Legislature.

It is now a question

whether we are to remain

Whigs, or to become

Democrats.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.

The Whigs are divided

into two parties.

One party is in favor

of the Union, and the

other is in favor of

secession.