New York, July 3. The news by the Europa possesses but little in terest, either commercially or politically. The news of the quick; passge of the Atlanthe gave great ratifaction to the friends of Collins' Line at Liverpool.

ENGLAND. The Liverpool Journal of Thursday, says that Lord John Ritssell had dealt the worst blow to the Peers which Hay have even yet received. His haughty democratic denist, that the votes of the up-per House can constitutionally hard the slightest inducence, were very effective, — He said are did lot say the willings. Certainly, the love of effect for mere office vake, or the pride of Eshersino policy, must be strong, when an autocratic the House of Esclord can thus practically repudints the House of Lords, and with the grate of a Perpusition of Lords, and with the grate of a Perpusition of Lords, and with the grate of a Perpusition of Lords, and with the grate of a Perpusition of Lords, and with the grate of the precentatives of the Commons. CONGRESSIONAL.

UCHERSBADRAL. Wainmorori, Joly 2. BENATE-Mr. Shields, from the Military Commi-tee, revorted a bill to reinbarte the common coun-cil of New York, for expresses incurred in rating and fitting out the first Regiment of New York Volunterra.

Manteers. Mr. Yales called up his resolution, fixing the Angust for the adjournment of Congress. Clay biefly reviewed the condition of the burlease, and thought it incoredient in the st degree, at the present time, even to indiest degree, at the present time, even to inti a a day upon which Congress might adjourn. After some further debute, a motion to postpone e resolution was sgreed to. The omnibus bill was then taken up, when Mr.

The contribute bill was then taken up, when Mr. Upham resumed his remarks. After concluting his observations upon the hirtory of the general question of the slavery southens, he proceeded to consider the bill under discussion. Air. Severat then took the floor. His said taxifian alten should chance to enter the Severate, during this debate, he would ask whether Californi was a stranger, and as coomy, and as unbidden and unwelcome introder; or a togiuve, or an oppressor or accorge of meained—and there-tore hatfell and dargenous. of the report of the Galphin Claim. Mr. Breck concluded his remarks in favor of the payment of the principal and interest of the claim. Mr. Schenck said it was noth ics, as to whether the amount paid was much or little, but whether it was just or upjust. He expressed his opinion, that while it does not appear that the conduct of the Secretary of war was fraudulent or corrupt, yet the House should not approve of the Secretary that while it does not appear that the conduct of the Secretary of war was frandulent or corrupt, yet the House should not approve of the Secretar-ry of war being engaged in the precenculors of a lead of the Excentive Department. This opin-ion hepresented in the form of a Easenluton. Mr. Stevenson, of Gongis, dokended Mr. Craw-ford. He argued that the payment of the princi-ple and interest was just, and that the Govern-min's was bound to discharge the dott.
