A "Fast" Wife.—The Portland "Argus" tells the following good story of the smartness and spirit of a woman in the settlement, and thinks it "the fastest case on record,"—that "it will take a balloon to beat it:"—

"One of our citizens intending to make a journey east last week, packed up his duds, and stuffed for the care, just in season to get a seat, leaving his wife (whom he much regretted could not accompany him) in the yard hanging out a washing of clothes. No sooner had he turned the corner, than his wife threw on her go-to-meetin's, went to the care, and took a seat before her lord entered. For eighty miles or so, the happy couple travelled in the same car, without the latter half discovering his indefatigable lady. Arrived at W., while the husband was enquiring the location of his friends, his wife made for the house, and became happily domiciliated before he arrived. Springing into the parlor, his friends, after the congratulations had passed, expressed their regret that he had not brought his wife. "Oh said he) she is so busy, she could not leave. Very sorry?—very sorry, I could not bring her along." "Well," said his hostess, "so are we. But there is a lady staying with us that looks so much like your wife, that you could hardly tell them apart. Wait, and I will introduce you." So without more ado, in she tubers the "fast wife" and threw the poor man, who left his wife in Portland hanging out clothes, into a perfect stagnation of astonishment, at finding she had got there before him."

Riding on a Camel.—The animal I got was a common baggage camel—very savage and stubborn, crying loudly, and running backwards when beaten; so that my first experience was not a very pleasant one. He knelt down for me to get upon him, but even then it was a long stretch to cross his back. Subsequently, in Egypt, I learnt to vault on the saddle, if the bridges of old camps, straw, and wood work, could be called one. Is-front there is a high pommel, which you clinch hold of when the animal rises. If you did not do this, the pitching forwards and backwards is so violent that you would inevitably be thrown off. You have only a simple, single halter to guide him with, and the end of this is sufficiently long to beat him. I will own to having been in a terrible fright all the while I was on his back. With his uneasy rocking motion, I had the greatest difficulty in the world to keep on, and the fall from any elevated perch—for such it really was—would have been no joke; and when he trotted, it was enough to bring the heart into the mouth. If I were asked to describe the first sensations of a camel ride, I would say: Take a mule's stool, and having wound it up as high as it will go, put it in a cart without springs, get on the top, and next drive the cart transversely across a ploughed field, and you will then form some notion of the terror and uncertainty you would experience the first time you mounted a camel. To make him go fast, you cry "ma! ma!" and also make a noise with your tongue, something like the word "thluck!"—and to get him to kneel down, you pull his crupulating sound, by pressing your tongue against the back of your teeth. At first, a very short journey is exceedingly fatiguing, and gives one the lumbago for a week; but afterwards, the easy saw motion becomes so little cared for, that I can well understand folks going to sleep on a camel. Once, in the desert, on a very hot day, I nearly dozed off myself.—Sands's Month in California.

The Duke of Wellington and his Watches.—A very comical story has been related in private circles for some days past, which is too good to be lost to the public, particularly as it includes the names of several distinguished individuals. The story runs thus:—

That Mrs. London, the lady whose clever writings are so well known, being lately in the neighborhood of Strathfieldsaye, wrote a letter to the Duke of Wellington, requesting him to allow her to visit his gardens, for the purpose of inspecting and taking the measurement of several fine beeches, known as the Waterloo beeches, at Strathfieldsaye. The letter was signed with her emblazing, "Mrs. J. London," and was duly presented to his grace, who, raising his glasses and looking at the contents, came to the conclusion that it was a request from the Bishop of London, whose signature is "C. J. London," to allow him to inspect and take the measurement of his Waterloo breeches. With his usual despatch, the duke immediately ordered his valet to forward his inexpressibles, and with his compliments to the right reverend prelate, inserting, it is supposed, that they might be mounted on some artistic purpose. It was exactly be expressed with what amazement the bishop received this extraordinary parcel; and it is not to be wondered at that his lordship concluded, latterly enough, that the duke had gone clean out of his senses. The joke, however, appeared so exceedingly good that he took the earliest opportunity of showing the bishop's note to his friends, when the error was soon detected; and Mrs. London thereupon received a polite compliance with her request.

Fourth of July Toast.—Old bachelors—leaflessness trunks in a garden of roses. Each dwelling to them is a suggestion; each bird's nest a standing admonition."

COMMERCIAL RECORD.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE AND MERCHANTS EXCHANGE.

COMMITTEE FOR JULY.

JAS MARSHALL, JAS M COOPER, ROBT. ERICH, JR.

Departures for Europe.—For the remainder of the present month, there will be semi-weekly departures of steamers, from New York and Boston to Great Britain, as follows:—The Washington for Southampton; on the 20th; the Hibernia from Boston on the 21st; the Atlantic from New York on the 27th; and the America, on the 31st.

OFFICE, PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
Friday morning, July 19, 1850.

The weather yesterday was warm and showery, and the market generally was very quiet.

FLOUR—The receipts of Flour are barely worth noticing, and the market, if any thing is duller than it was at our last report, and there are evidences of a still farther decline. We heard of no first brand sales excepting a few small lots from wagon at $4.62½ ₱ bbl; large lots would not obtain that figure. From store, in drey load lots, we quote at $4.50@4.62. We heard of a lot of 300 bbls being offered at lower figures, without finding purchasers. Sales are confined entirely to the regular home consumption.

Rye Flour—We heard of sales in limited lots, at $3.50@3.62½ ₱ bbl.

GRAIN—The amounts coming forward at this time are very light, and no sales of consequence have come to our knowledge. We quote Wheat from first hands, at 100@105c; Corn, 55@56c; Rye 63c, Barley, 85@90c, and Oats at 35@37c ₱ bu PROVISIONS—The market continues inactive, and sales limited. There is a moderate demand for Western cured bacon, at, for Hams, 7@7½; Sides, 6½ and Shoulders 4½c. Prime city cured from smoke house is sold at prices a shade lighter than the above, and country cured at lower rates. Sugar cured canvassed hams are sold regularly by the tierce, at 9@10c, as in quality.

SOAP AND CANDLES—Sales of resin Soap, at 4 @4½; of Star Candles at 9@9½c; mould tallow, 10c, and common dipped at 9c ₱ lb.

CHEESE—We notice receipts of considerable lots from the Western Reserve, but the arrivals this year fall far short of the corresponding period last year—Sales have been confined to comparatively small lots, at a range of 5@6½ for good common to prime cream.

CRACKERS—We give the following as the highest market price for the different articles under this head:

Water Crackers, per bbl	—$3.25
Butter do do	5.00
Dyspepsie do do	5.25
Pilot Bread, do do	4.00
Sugar Crackers, per lb	7½
Soda do do	7½

ASHES—Very little has been doing in the Ashes market, owing to the prevailing dull season, and comparatively small demand, and prices are generally the same as given in our last weekly review. With small sales, we continue our quotations as follows:—Pearls, 6c; Saleratus, 5¼@5½; Potash, 4¼@4½; Soda Ash, 4½@4½; and Scorchings at 3½@3½ ₱ lb.

Spirit of the Domestic Markets.

BALTIMORE, July 15

Flour—Sales of 100 bbls H S, at $5.25. No sales of City Mills—many of the millers offer to contract for new flour at $5.50.

Wheat—Numerous parcels of good Wheat were in market this morning, and sold at 112@113c, and for prime Maryland reds. A load of N C red, brought 110; sales of white, common to prime quality, sold at 115@ 0 115c ₱ bu.

Rye—Sales of Corn at 61@62c for white and yellow.

Whisky—Moderate sales of bbls at 22c; sales of hhds at 21@21½.

PHILADELPHIA, July 13.

Flour—Sales of good for shipment at $5.12½ ₱ bbl.

Corn Meal—Sales of 300 bbls at $2.81½ ₱ bbl.

Wheat—No lots of new crop southern read, the first of the season was received to day, and sold at 105c sales of fair white at 105 ₱ bu.

Rye—Sales 500 bu Penna. at 62c.

Corn—A sale of 5.0 bus Penna yellow, at 62c—a decline.

Oats—Are steady at 43@44c ₱ bu for Penna, and 40c for southern.

Coffee—A cargo of 4000 bgs Rio, and an import of 647 bags Laguayra have arrived.

Whisky is firm at 21½c in hhds, and 22c in bbls with sales.

Cattle Market.

BALTIMORE, June 28

Cattle—The offerings at the scales on Monday reached 650 head of Beeves, of which 550 were sold to city butchers, 300 were driven to Philadelphia. Prices ranged from $3.25 to $3.75 on the hoof, equal to $6@7 net, and averaging $5 gross.

Hogs—We quote the retail prices at $5.25.50.

Foreign Markets.

American Fr ces in London—Baring's circular of the 5th June, says:—American stocks are in moderate demand, and where sales have been made they have been effected at a slight decline from previous prices, as small parcels only have been for the settlement for rations here. U S 6 ₱ cent. bonds, with coup, of 1868 each, have been sold at 107½. In our quotations of other stocks, we have no material change to make, but they are chiefly nominal. La. Union 6 bonds, of 1852 are wanted at 92, and S C bonds of 1853 and '54, without the July div'dend, at 91. The new Boston city loan, without business, at 87@89. Some transactions have taken place in the Canada 6 ₱ cent bonds at 99, with interest for the buyer from August next; and there are buyers at that price for Canada 5's, 99 is offered, at dividend, but there are none in the market.

London Iron Market, July 2d.—We have a quiet market for manufactured iron, but former terms are maintained. Rails—Five tons are sold for Liverpool, and the market remains in the same state, and has a good trade, at former prices, with large No 1's quoted at £6, merchant bars £5@£5 5s, and staffordshire 45s 6d net cash, ex to the rail road, f. o. b. Welsh bars are a shade lower, and a fair extent of business has been done at £4 10s 6 £4 12s 6d; there are now buyers at these prices. Rods are quiet at £4 12s 6d@£4 15s.

Liverpool Iron Market.—In Scotland the colliers have partially returned to their work, and as this may tend to increase the supply of Pig Iron, it has tended to depress the market. At the meeting of iron masters in Staffordshire, it was determined to make no alteration from present prices. For delivery in Warrant Pig Iron, prices may be quoted at 75 12s 6d to 75 15s. In Liverpool common bar iron £5 best rolled £6 15s, hoop £8 10s; sheet £7 10s; nail rods £8 15s; Scotch Pig No 1 £2 15s.

DECAY OF FEMALE BEAUTY.

LONG before maturity, we see females emaciated, and the clearness of complexion, and brightness of the eye, departed. Though not thirty in years, they have lost all youth that they ought to possess at any. Why is this? Depression of spirits, languor, and seemingly debility long continued, without seeking results in an enervated constitution, and a train of which can only be removed, and the shattered constitution restored, by tonic and genial medicine, whose tonic and alterative properties are peculiarly suited to tender and delicate constitutions.

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

A RESTORATION.

CINCINNATI, May 7 1850.

Dr. S. B. Hoyt—Dear sir—For nearly two years my wife has been gradually declining without any disease—the symptoms however, were general debility, weakness, occasional hysterics, pains, and irregularities of the system. Our family physician finally told me last month, was no hope as the symptoms however, were general debility, weakness, occasional hysterics, pains, and irregularities of the system. Our family physician finally told me last month, was no hope as the symptoms were unfavorable. I now purchased her 16 jury Dr. S. B. Hoyt's Sherry Sarsaparilla, (unasked on her part) and exchanged three months using six bottles, her health was restored, her strength and flesh regained, and she now enjoys sound and robust health. No pecuniary consideration can ever repay the obligation I am under to you for restoring my wife to health, and I most cheerfully recommend your truly valuable Medicine,

JOSEPH MAYNARD.
