I believe he did not refer to the argument of Toomba. He was radically and irreconcilably opposed to the bill for paying money to Texas. He could not consent to tax his constituents for that purpose. If she had any title to the land she claimed, let ber have it We had no occasion to purchase. "Old Thad" indulged in a great deal of sarcasm at the expense indulged in a great deal of sarcasm at the expense of the compromises with Texas, both in the Hours and Senate. Mr. Duer, of New York; obtained the Soor, and will speak to morrow. I have no doubt he will make a powerful and unanawerable defence of the position so promptly and bodily assemble by the President, as well as of Mr. Pearce's bill for the settlement of the boundary. I am sorry to inform you that the prospects of this latter measure of conciliation, are notes fair as could be wished. The Northern and Southern copponents expect, by a combination of forces to muster strength enough to defeat it. We shall know the result in a few days.

The Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill, the most important on the list, will probably be passed on Saturday or Monday next. Next week will be given up to the two remaining appropriation bills.
