Terms—Six months, with approved endorsed notes, or for cash, with a discount of six per cent per annum, payable in gold and silver, semi-annually, upon the first days of February and August of each year, and exempt from every species of taxation.

Notice, that proposals for said loan will be received, and be published in at least one newspaper in each Borough of Harrisburg, in the cities of Pittsburgh, Lancaster, and Philadelphia, and in the cities of New York, Boston, and Baltimore, for a period not less than three months before the opening of said proposals, and by later elsewhere, if deemed necessary, and upon the day assigned for that purpose, in such notice, the proposals shall be opened in the presence of the Governor, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and Auditor General, and the loan shall be awarded to the highest bidder or bidders. If the amount of the bids shall exceed the sum of the said loan the same shall be distributed pro rata amongst the highest bidders, but if the whole of said loan shall not then be taken the Governor may renew notice, in the manner aforesaid, from time to time, till the whole amount of said loan shall be subscribed. No conditional bids shall be considered, and upon awarding such loans, or any part thereof, certificates with coupons for the interest, shall be issued therefor by the Auditor General.

Section 12. If the said loan shall be subscribed, it shall be and it is hereby appropriated for the payment and redemption of the funded debt of this Commonwealth, now due, or to become due during the next year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and for the payment of the sum of eighty five thousand dollars, and four dollars and eighty eight cents, due to the domestic creditors.

Section 13. That the provisions aforesaid, notice is hereby given, that proposals will be received at the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, until the fifteenth DAY OF MAY, the first day of February next, stipulating for a loan to the Commonwealth for the purposes set forth in the said act of the sum of two millions three hundred and seventy five thousand dollars in thirty years from the date of the subscription thereof, at a rate of interest not exceeding four per cent per annum, payable in gold and silver, semi-annually, upon the first days of February and August of each year, and exempt from every species of taxation.

Certificates of stock for the said loan, with coupons for the interest will be issued in the usual manner and made transferable by the owner, on the books of the Auditor General in person or by attorney.

The proposals will be required to state explicitly the amount offered which shall not in any case be less than one thousand dollars, and the rate of interest exceeding four per cent, and the premium proposed.

The Governor reserves to himself the right to accept the whole or any part of the sum offered unless the proposals state to the contrary.

Bids for the loan must be direct and explicit. No conditional proposals will be received.

Upon the acceptance of the proposals the money must be paid into the State Treasury, in such amounts as shall be directed by the Governor.

Certificates of loan will be issued in such amounts as may be requested by the lenders.

The proposals to be directed, under seal, to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and the loan not to be opened or disclosed until the period for receiving them has elapsed, after which no alteration in the terms will be admitted.

RESOLUTION

RELATIVE TO AN AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION.

RESOLVED by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the Constitution of this Commonwealth be amended in the second section of the 8th article, that it shall read as follows: The Judges of the Supreme Court, of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as now exist or shall be established by law, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth, in the manner following, to wit: The Judges of the Supreme Court, by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth at large; the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as now exist or shall be established by law, by the qualified electors of the districts over which they are to preside or act as Judges, and the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas by the qualified electors of the counties respectively. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices for the term of fifteen years, if they shall so long behave themselves well, (subject to the allotment hereinafter provided for,) subsequent to the first election, if the Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as now exist or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, shall hold their offices for the term of ten years, if they shall so long behave themselves well, but the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas, shall hold their offices for the term of five years, if they shall so long behave themselves well, all of whom shall be commissioned by the Governor, but for any reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient grounds for impeachment, the Governor shall remove any of the said Judges on the address of two thirds of each branch of the Legislature. The first election shall take place at the general election of the Commonwealth next after the adoption of this amendment, and the commissions of all the Judges who may be then in office shall expire on the first Monday of December following, when the terms of the new Judges shall commence. The persons who shall then be elected Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices as follows: One of them for three years, one for six years, one for ten years, one for fifteen years, and one for fifteen years, so that one may be elected for the full term of fifteen years, as soon after the election as ascertained, and the remainder by lot, by the Governor, that the vacancies may be known in accordance thereto. The Judge whose commission will first expire shall be Chief Justice during the term for which he was elected, and thereafter the Judge who shall have served longest in that office, and of those whose commissions shall expire on the same day, the Judge having the highest vote shall be the Chief Justice. Any vacancies happening by death, resignation, or otherwise, in any of the Courts of Record, shall be filled temporarily by the Governor, to continue till the first Monday of December succeeding the next general election. The Judges of the Supreme Court and the Presidents of the several Courts of Common Pleasshall, at stated times, receive for their services a salary or annuity to be fixed by law, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office, but they shall receive no other compensation, fee or reward for their services in any office or employment appertaining to their offices, or any other office or employment under the authority of this State or the United States. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall not hold any office or station in the gift of the Executive, or the Legislature, or of any city or county, for which they were respectively elected."

S. M'CALMONT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
V. DEST,
Speaker of the Senate.

SENATE CHAMBER,
Harrisburg, January 23, 1850.

I, Samuel W. Pearson, Chief Clerk of the Senate of Pennsylvania, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original resolution of the General Assembly entitled "Resolution relative to an amendment of the Constitution," as the same remains on file in this office.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused to be affixed the seal of the Secretary's Office at Harrisburg, the fifteenth day of June, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

EXTRA FAMILY FLOUR.

FOR the convenience of the citizens, the proprietors of the Pittsburgh City Mills have placed boxes for the reception of orders at the following places:—

J. & R. Floyd, corner of Sixth and Wood streets.
M. Hayward, shoe store, cor. Liberty & Market sts.
A. Herbert, store, Third street.
L. Wilson, jr., druggist, cor. Fourth & Smithfield.
John F Smith, store, corner High & Wylie.
Telegraph Office, Fourth street.
H C Kelly, grocer, Fifth st, corner of Market alley
M Grass, store, Penn street, Ninth Ward.

The flour wagons will call twice or three daily for the flour, &c. delivered promptly, either for orders, and the flour, &c. delivered promptly, either in barrels or sacks—each flour is preferable for family use—without charge for carriage. It is plain that no accounts can be allowed, and that drivers can have no permission to leave flour without payment.

We hope the public will be pleased with this arrangement, as we shall endeavor to do them justice.

GOVERNMENTAL.

PROPOSALS FOR A LOAN.

PROCLAMATION.

THE eleventh and twelfth sections of the Act of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, entitled "A Supplement to an Act entitled an Act to create a Sinking Fund and to provide for the gradual and certain extinguishment of the debt of the Commonwealth and to authorize a loan," approved the 15th day of May A D 1850, provides as follows, viz:—

Section 11. That the Governor is hereby authorized to negotiate a loan for the sum of Three Millions Three Hundred Thousand Dollars, redeemable in thirty years from the date of the subscription thereof, at a rate of interest not exceeding four per centum per annum, payable in gold and silver, semi-annually, upon the first days of February and August of each year, and exempt from every species of taxation. Notice, that proposals for said loan will be received, shall be published in at least one newspaper in each Borough of Harrisburg, in the cities of Pittsburgh, Lancaster, and Philadelphia, and in the cities of New York, Boston, and Baltimore, for a period not less than three months before the opening of said proposals, and by later elsewhere, if deemed necessary, and upon the day assigned for that purpose, in such notice, the proposals shall be opened in the presence of the Governor, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and Auditor General, and the loan shall be awarded to the highest bidder or bidders. If the amount of the bids shall exceed the sum of the said loan the same shall be distributed pro rata amongst the highest bidders, but if the whole of said loan shall not then be taken the Governor may renew notice, in the manner aforesaid, from time to time, till the whole amount of said loan shall be subscribed. No conditional bids shall be considered, and upon awarding such loans, or any part thereof, certificates with coupons for the interest, shall be issued therefor by the Auditor General.

Section 12. If the said loan shall be subscribed, it shall be and it is hereby appropriated for the payment and redemption of the funded debt of this Commonwealth, now due, or to become due during the next year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and for the payment of the sum of eighty five thousand dollars, and four dollars and eighty eight cents, due to the domestic creditors.

Section 13. That the provisions aforesaid, notice is hereby given, that proposals will be received at the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, until the fifteenth DAY OF MAY, the first day of February next, stipulating for a loan to the Commonwealth for the purposes set forth in the said act of the sum of two millions three hundred and seventy five thousand dollars in thirty years from the date of the subscription thereof, at a rate of interest not exceeding four per cent per annum, payable in gold and silver, semi-annually, upon the first days of February and August of each year, and exempt from every species of taxation.

Certificates of stock for the said loan, with coupons for the interest will be issued in the usual manner and made transferable by the owner, on the books of the Auditor General in person or by attorney.

The proposals will be required to state explicitly the amount offered which shall not in any case be less than one thousand dollars, and the rate of interest exceeding four per cent, and the premium proposed.

The Governor reserves to himself the right to accept the whole or any part of the sum offered unless the proposals state to the contrary.

Bids for the loan must be direct and explicit. No conditional proposals will be received.

Upon the acceptance of the proposals the money must be paid into the State Treasury, in such amounts as shall be directed by the Governor.

Certificates of loan will be issued in such amounts as may be requested by the lenders.

The proposals to be directed, under seal, to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and the loan not to be opened or disclosed until the period for receiving them has elapsed, after which no alteration in the terms will be admitted.

RELATIVE TO AN AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION.

RESOLVED by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the Constitution of this Commonwealth be amended in the second section of the 8th article, that it shall read as follows: The Judges of the Supreme Court, of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as now exist or shall be established by law, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth, in the manner following, to wit: The Judges of the Supreme Court, by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth at large; the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as now exist or shall be established by law, by the qualified electors of the districts over which they are to preside or act as Judges, and the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas by the qualified electors of the counties respectively. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices for the term of fifteen years, if they shall so long behave themselves well, (subject to the allotment hereinafter provided for,) subsequent to the first election, if the Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as now exist or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, shall hold their offices for the term of ten years, if they shall so long behave themselves well, but the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas shall hold their offices for the term of five years, if they shall so long behave themselves well, all of whom shall be commissioned by the Governor, but for any reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient grounds for impeachment, the Governor shall remove any of the said Judges on the address of two thirds of each branch of the Legislature. The first election shall take place at the general election of the Commonwealth next after the adoption of this amendment, and the commissions of all the Judges who may be then in office shall expire on the first Monday of December following, when the terms of the new Judges shall commence. The persons who shall then be elected Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices as follows: One of them for three years, one for six years, one for ten years, one for fifteen years, and one for fifteen years, so that one may be elected for the full term of fifteen years, as soon after the election as ascertained, and the remainder by lot, by the Governor, that the vacancies may be known in accordance thereto. The Judge whose commission will first expire shall be Chief Justice during the term for which he was elected, and thereafter the Judge who shall have served longest in that office, and of those whose commissions shall expire on the same day, the Judge having the highest vote shall be the Chief Justice. Any vacancies happening by death, resignation, or otherwise, in any of the Courts of Record, shall be filled temporarily by the Governor, to continue till the first Monday of December succeeding the next general election. The Judges of the Supreme Court and the Presidents of the several Courts of Common Pleasshall, at stated times, receive for their services a salary or annuity to be fixed by law, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office, but they shall receive no other compensation, fee or reward for their services in any office or employment appertaining to their offices, or any other office or employment under the authority of this State or the United States. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall not hold any office or station in the gift of the Executive, or the Legislature, or of any city or county for which they were respectively elected."

S. M'CALMONT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
V. DEST,
Speaker of the Senate.

SENATE CHAMBER,
Harrisburg, January 23, 1850.

I, Samuel W. Pearson, Chief Clerk of the Senate of Pennsylvania, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original resolution of the General Assembly entitled "Resolution relative to an amendment of the Constitution," as the same remains on file in this office.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused to be affixed the seal of the Secretary's Office at Harrisburg, the fifteenth day of June, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty.
