thwart the Mayor in the ducharge of his duties, the control of the parties accused. See, at great length.

Bather, who was evidently "norsing his wrath to keep it warm", during the time that this precious document was being read, at its conclusion burst forth. Some time ago, this Committee indertook to control him in the ducharge on his dutier, and he threatened to put them in juil and in the watch boute. That man there, (Alderman Major, cierk of the Police Committee,) perjured himself, and he had put him in juil. Yes, and if the Council didn't tell what they did with the $63,000 they had spent, he would put them in juil too.
