We were glad to see that our citizens, in general, seemed to manifest an earnest desire for the webser of the Association, and etamined the stock on exhibition with much interest.

One of the spacious tots near the Market House was fitted with pens and stalls for the reception of catild, and at about nine o'clock, horres, caule, sheep, &c., began to be driven on the ground, and the enclosure was soon crowded by spectators. The morning was a rather unfavorable one, since the clouds seemed to threaten rain, but, notwithstanding, the exhibition was a most creditable one, and the Seciety, now firmly fixed on a secure-foundation, will hereafter rank among the first institutions of a similar kind in the United States.
