LOCAL MATTERS.

Figs.—The starm of fire last night, was occasioned by a stable, in the rear of Christy's Hotel, Penn street, taking fire. It was burnt to the grounds as were several frame buildings around it, though the damage must have been trifling. Christy's Hotel, and the Exchange hotel were for some time in considerable danger, but, thanks to the exartions—To our gallant faremen, the flames were exiting uished before they could reach those buildings.

tinguished before they could reach those buildings.

First Harriss.—We neglected to notice a beautiful set of harness, exhibited at the late Fair, by Mr. R. P. Harrisy of Wood street. The works manship was very creditable, surpassing any thing of a similar kind which we have seen for a long time past. The monthings were plated, and directly where the Mayor was fearing on the table, gether, we have never seen any thing of the kind.

Mr. B. Was called into the back room of the colling having become alignment, where the Mayor was fearing on the table, froth issuing from his mouth.
