THE WEATERLOG (N. Y.) MURDER CASE - The PITTSBURGH GAZETTE. trial of Reulen Dundar, indicted for the murder of Stephen and David Lester, at Westerloo, on the 25th of September last, which has been going on far two weeks past at Albany, was concluded on Tuesday, by the jury rendering a verdict of gality. The evidence was altogether circumstan-tial, so far as the guilt of the prisoner was con-cerned. The circumstances of the case were briefly as follows:

briefly as follown: The children mutched were two brothers, aged eight and ten years respectively, reaking with their uncle, David Lester, stepfaher of the accured. On the day specified, when there was no one on the farm but the two boys, the primo-cr, and his mother, the boys were both mixing.-This was on Saturday. Search was made for them on Sunday, and the days following, until Wedge-day, when the body of Stephen was found thder a ledge of nocks, with a heavy stone lying cross-wiss on his breast. The skull was fractured, the breast was cruched, the leavy were beat, and six Of a ledge of rocks, with a lawy stone place adde wise on his breast. The skull was fractured, the breast was crushed, the lawy stone his, and air of the tibe brokes. On the succeeding day the body of David was found harging on a tree in the vi-ically be inflicted with a swingle belonging to the tibe brokes. On the succeeding day the body of David was found harging on a tree bolonging to Mr. Lester, which was ifound secreted near the child, and David was asopended from the tree by a rope, which was aleoidentified by Mr. Lester as his property. The primoer was the last seen with these boys, and while the search was gring on for their bodies, the endeworde to divert the statistic of the endeworde to divert the statistic of early aggrandizement appears to have been the impelling motive to the crime, yet the interest of the presence, if we understand it, was indeed remote in the removal of the por-children. They were culled to attern his could only revert to bim through its fram so willed by his stepfather, or by inderstand it. The idea of the removal of the por-children. They were culled to attern his mother, in case that it were bequesibled in the case statist is doned to be a were the facts that the prisoner had only been married two weets, and that the most important witness against him was his own mother. The was enstanced to be created on the 31st January, and when straigned for scatteree denied that he was guilty of the hoped dog would lorgive them.
