One objection to this payement is, that it will be-come dangerously smooth atter being long worn. For this there is, probably, no remedy. Another is, that it is enormously expensive, so much so, that none built me most opdicatt entres can afford it.--Built certainty is the best of all payements; and for Broadway, with its perpetinal throng of vehi icles, it is, perhaps, the cheapest. The motion of a carriage nolling over this payement very much reastred.

Ann BET and Joan P. Brown.—Some time wince, a letter was published to the New York Ex-press, from a correspondent at Constantinople, de-nying, that he said Amin, was sent to this country by his Soycreign as an Ambassador, Acc. This let-ter has produced a reply from Mr. Browno, who
