A gentleman was understood to say that Mr.

Roggen was a tory.

Another gentleman denied this.

The first gentleman explained that his language bad been misconstrued.

Mr. P. R. Sawyer was celled upon for a basech. He restricted that none of the party speech. He regretted that some of the party Whigs had been found to occupy the time of the meeting. There were times when it behooved all good citizens to threw eside all considerations of party, and regard only the merits of the candi-
